Teachers' strike ends; classes start today

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Students reported bright and early today to begin the 1984-85 school year in Granite City District Nine.

most of them joyful that an Aug. 27 teacher strike had ended at 1 a.m. The tentative settlement led to withdrawal of pickets, and faculty members attended year-opening workshops at the 12 schools yesterday. About 9,000 pupils were summoned to classes this morning, with buses operating on regular routes.

HAROLD BAKER, the school system's bargaining attorney, had said at the end of Monday night's board session that the district traditionally opposes binding arbitration because it involves abdicating the board's authority and duty.

He added that the board still felt the same but was willing to study the general subject in light of revisions in the Illinois School Code. Binding arbitration cannot be invoked unless sought by both sides, and neither asked for it.

Baker said the district again was issuing its Sept. 8 offer and asking that Local 743 consider it as a total package, not as individual articles. A PROBLEM WITH arbitration as of Monday, by which time there may have been some retreat from earlier concessions, was that too many issues were still at stake and too many of them involved unknown and possibly large costs, the attorney commented.

Whether arbitration would be acceptable on a smaller number of concerns was not disclosed. Although new cost-cutting may be necessary next spring, it is believed there are provisions to protect against massive new rounds of layoffs.

In other matters, the Board of Education has promised to permit early termination of a two-year pact if negotiations on "reopeners" have not been successfully completed by Dec. 31, 1985. This plan assures there will be no delay in starting the school term on time in the fall of 1985.

BOTH SIDES HOPE there will be an increase in general state aid to Illinois schools in the summer or fall of 1985.

Teachers say the tentative contract calls for board adoption of an equitable policy governing its procedures in selecting which of honorably dismissed teachers to recall to fill future vacancies.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER. Granite City High School students file out of busses this morning as classes throughout the district begin the fall term. The start of school was delayed more than two weeks because of the teachers' strike which ended early Wednesday.

Expanded provision is being made for consideration of proposals by Local 743 on this and other school district policies.

A FUTURE ISSUE is whether the district should contribute to a teacher insurance trust fund. Local 743 has urged the district to explore whether means could be devised to provide elementary teachers with duty-free lunch periods. The local also favors higher severance pay at retirement, as determined by the value of accumulated unused absences.

Powerful storm lashes Quad-City area

High winds, 2.68 inches of rainfall and intense lightning played havoc in the Quad-City area Monday night, causing power outages, street flooding, fires and accidents.

In Granite City, firefighters responded to a problem at the home of Nancy Dunn, 2322 Edison Ave., at 10:10 p.m. Monday, when lightning popped plaster off the attic walls where metal corner beading was present, reports said.

ELECTRICAL INDUCTION from a nearby lightning strike also was blamed for damage to the hood of a kitchen range at the home of Keith Gauen, 2313 State St., where firefighters were called at 9:50 p.m. Monday. No flames were evident when fire trucks arrived, it was noted.

The winds toppled the large sign for Kozak's Market along Nameski Road, which fell on top of a car, smashing the roof, windshield and back window. The sign narrowly missed a nearby van.

Numerous burglar alarms were triggered by the storm and were answered by police. High water on the roads hampered officers, who reported water to the doors of their squad cars in such areas as Miami Court and Nassau St.

IN MADISON, firefighters responded to four different calls within minutes of each other. The first occurred at midnight Tuesday, when an electrical fan at 907 Iowa St., Madison, was hit by lightning. Mary Kowalski, occupant of the home was not injured and firefighters were able to dispose of the problem in a few minutes.

At 12:15 a.m., a fire broke out at 96 Gareche Homes. Reports said the fire resulted from placing a candle on the bed. Rose Williams, 32, occupant, was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for smoke inhalation, where she was listed in stable condition Wednesday.

Officials estimated damage to the building at $1,000 and damage to the contents at $500.

FIREFIGHTERS also responded to a call at 12:30 a.m. at 1600 Fourth St., the home of Fire Chief Mike Macek. Macek said Wednesday that there was no damage to the exterior of the home, but that some of his home's electrical appliances, including a burglar alarm and cordless telephones, had been affected by lightning.

Macek said the problems in his appliances resulted from a power transformer being hit by lightning on Washington Ave. Another transformer, hit by lightning at 986 Madison Ave., Madison.

Firefighters responded to a call at the Madison Avenue transformer, but referred the problem to Illinois Power Co.

An accident in the early morning hours Tuesday in Madison also was storm-related.

WILLIAM E. Brandt II, 26, of 905 Alton Ave., Madison, was injured in a two-vehicle accident at 2:30 a.m. after his car collided with a parked Illinois Power truck.

George V. Vogel, 46, of Collinsville, the driver of the Illinois Power truck, was not in his vehicle at the time.

Brandt was westbound on the 1500 block of 10th Street when his car hit with the left front portion of the truck. The truck was facing east while the driver was servicing power lines. Brandt declined medical treatment for his injuries.

United Way sets goal for fall campaign

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"Americans have a great compassion for people in need and this community has been tremendously successful in solving our collective problems," Ted Ellerman, executive vice president of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, said during the 1984 United Way campaign kickoff breakfast Tuesday morning in the township hall.

A campaign goal of $630,000 was announced during the meeting, which is seven percent higher than the amount of money raised in last year's campaign.

ELLERMAN, keynote speaker for the event, recognized the many volunteers at the breakfast and said the solving of this community's problems "is not possible without volunteers, the most important cog in this wheel."

He noted two things are necessary for a successful drive, the first being sincerity of the volunteers. "You've got to believe what we're involved in. Without sincerity, I don't think you have a chance," he warned.

The second key, Ellerman said, is enthusiasm. "Enthusiasm permeates your quest to reach the goal," he said.

ERIC ROBERTSON, 1984 campaign chairman, marked his pledge card at the podium, saying he is giving seven percent more this year than last to help reach the goal. "Our goal is a seven percent increase over what was raised last year. I believe it is reasonable and attainable. I am asking everyone for a seven percent increase (in their pledges) and corporations for a 10 percent increase," he noted.

The 1984 goal reflects last year's unsuccessful attempt to reach $670,000 in pledges. The 1983 campaign solicitations totaled $588,735 or 88 percent of the goal. This year's $630,000 goal is identical to the 1982 drive goal, which was reached and topped.

JAMES EISENBEIS, president of the United Way, said that in this community, "there are a lot of tough times to come. On the other hand, there are a lot of determined people to make this drive a success."

The meeting was closed by Randall Robertson, master of ceremonies, who commented, "Never have we had such a need to help each other as now. Look at the list of agencies helped by the United Way. What a blow it would be to our community if any one of those was unable to serve us," he commented.

United Way member agencies are the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Community Home, Association for Retarded Citizens, Protestant Welfare Association, Coordinated Youth Services, the Salvation Army, Arthritis Foundation, Catholic Charities, YMCA, Visiting Nurse Association, Madison County Urban League, Childrens Home & Aid Society, Alpha Center for Women, Family Counseling, American Red Cross and the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

MORE THAN 200 persons attended the free breakfast and were entertained by Granite City High School students Melissa Stinson and Jennifer Little singing ragtime solos.

Sister Mary Thomas, president of SEMC, gave the invocation and benediction. Scouts from the Cahokia Mound Council posted the colors.

Breakfast, catered by Charlie's Restaurant, was served courtesy of the Press-Record, American Heritage Bank, Colonial Bank of Granite City, First Granite City National Bank, First National Bank in Madison, Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, First Granite City Savings and Loan, Madison County Federal Savings, American Steel Foundries, Consolidated Aluminum, Gilk's Department Stores, Granite City Steel and the Nestle Co., Inc.

THE BREAKFAST was the first step in the campaign, which moved into high gear today with the Blitz, as 75 volunteers visited approximately 200 businesses in the Quad-City area to solicit donations.

Today also was a special day as several beauty shops and barber shops have agreed to donate a portion of today's proceeds to the United Way campaign.

Restaurants and taverns also are involved in a fund-raising drive for the United Way, Robertson announced.

CAMPAIGN report meetings are slated for Sept. 21, Oct. 5, Oct. 19 and Nov. 2, all at noon at the Community Club of the Granite City Army Installation.

ship Hall. Eric Robertson, above, the 1984 campaign chairman, announces the $630,000 goal set for this year's fund drive. He explained the amount reflects a seven-percent increase over what was pledged during the 1983 campaign.

AFDC recipients will be home aides

Newly signed into law, Senate Bill 1905 authorizes a demonstration project to train as homemakers or home health aides persons eligible for the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program.

It amends the Public Aid Code to allow the Illinois department of Public Aid to contract with social services agencies to train and employ AFDC recipients as homemakers or home health aides for elderly and disabled individuals who might otherwise have to be institutionalized without help in their homes.

Participants will be employed to perform such duties as housekeeping, shopping, assisting individuals with limited mobility, and keeping track of health records. Under this program, project participants will maintain Medicaid eligibility for the first year of employment.

Students urge settlement, told schools nearly bankrupt

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

A public gathering variously estimated at 100 to 300 was attracted by Monday night's special Board of Education meeting, which opened with public comments and closed with an executive session on the status of negotiations with Teachers Local 743.

A strike was still in progress at the time. (A breakthrough was achieved Tuesday night, and faculty members reported for semester-opening workshops Wednesday, paving the way for attendance by students today.)

CONSISTING MAINLY of Granite City High School students with junior high school and elementary pupils also present, Monday night's audience filled the board meeting room to overflowing. All chairs were occupied and many sat on the floor or stood.

There were others present in the adjacent corridor and still others outside the building.

Adults also were in the crowd. The general sentiment was that some way should be found to quickly end the strike, which began Aug. 27.

SIGNS HELD BY PUPILS said, "You have an education. Give us one." "Bethalto did it (settled). Why can't we?" And, "We need education."

Among those attending were athletes, cheerleaders, musicians, members of flag, drill and marching units and students from other high school organizations.

The meeting was called to order by David Partney, president of the Board of Education, who told the gathering, "At this time, this district is nearing the point of being bankrupt. We have borrowed $5 million and, to finish this school year, we must locate approximately another $2,646,998."

"WE DO NOT HAVE a source that is willing to make a loan commitment. Without that commitment, and if the bond issue does not pass in November, we do not know at the present time how we can finish this school year."

"It is true we are asking Local 743 to take a wage freeze this year, because we lost $1,119,000 in state aid and real estate taxes this year compared to last year. We also don't know if we can borrow enough money to finish this year," Partney repeated.

"Concerning next year, we can't guarantee a wage increase because we don't know what our sources of revenue will be and in what amounts."

"Also, in comparing our wage and fringe benefits with other school districts in Madison County, our teachers average over $4,600 more in wages in 8.5 less years of service."

"IN FRINGE BENEFITS, compared to the same surrounding schools in Madison County:

"1. We pay 100 percent of the first $7,500 in medical expenses and 80 percent thereafter for a family, while the other school districts pay just for the teacher and 40 percent of the family plan."

"2. The Granite City teachers have a board-paid $15,000 life insurance policy, compared to a $10,833 average at the same schools."

"3. UPON RETIREMENT, a Granite City teacher can accumulate up to $9,000 in unused absences while these other six school districts—Alton, Collinsville, Edwardsville, Wood River, Bethalto and Highland—average $3,470."

"It is true that our teachers received a pay increase in 1982-83. Their wages were frozen in 1983-84 and they have agreed to a wage freeze this year."

"If you compare this to industries, some people took a $1.25 an hour decrease. On the high end, some people took as much as a $6 per hour cut in wages and fringe benefits."

"We are not asking the taxpayers' employees to suffer a loss in wages."

"WE ARE ONLY ASKING for their help so that we can come up with a plan to solve our economic problems."

"This will help us in trying to continue, to provide all the current educational programs for our children—under the control of the local taxpayers."

"Unemployment in Granite City is 13 percent, nearly twice the national average."

"Information from the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon shows that since 1980 Madison County has lost 16 major industries with 8,350 jobs. Nine of those 16 were in Granite City, with 7,730 jobs lost."

"WITH SO MANY laid off, including teachers, this town is in a heck of a mess."

"Getting the students back in school is our number one priority. We have been asking that the teachers work and that we continue negotiating."

"The bond issue and tax rate referendum (Nov. 6) are needed but won't permit raises. We won't have a dime for raises, but the election can help us get the schools back on a sound basis," Partney said.

BOYD PRESLEY, who heads the Granite City High School Boosters, said he was not taking issue with the teachers or board but wanted to emphasize the importance of "getting the kids back in school."

"We have a chance for a state soccer championship. College scholarships are important to both the football and soccer players," he related.

Praising the Press-Record's front-page editorial of Monday, "Time to reopen the Granite City schools," Presley said the teacher strike was starting to create serious problems for students.

"OPEN THE SCHOOL DOORS and let the kids in," he urged. Partney replied that the district had not shut the schools and was regularly rescheduling the start of classes, but that teachers rejected the idea of working and negotiating simultaneously.

Donald Keeling, 2404 Delta Ave., said he was "very disturbed" by the delay of school, adding, "I know the problems can be worked out. Instead, an impasse has been reached between the board and teachers. He called for renewed effort to 'get a fair settlement' and proposed use of binding arbitration."

John Konkovich, a GCHS senior student and football player, noted that part of the fall sports schedule has been eliminated by the strike. He said athletes in the past two weeks had lost their peak physical condition attained during August "two a day" practices for the football team and "three a day" drills for soccer players.

"BETHALTO HAD a three-day strike and settled. Here, we're in the third week of the strike. I want to get back to school," he concluded.

Scott Grote, a senior and a varsity soccer team member, said the Warriors have good potential this fall but their prospects diminish as games are canceled.

Grote added, "My future education depends on my senior year in school. Many students are hoping for scholarships. I can't see why this can't be settled."

Mack Johnson, 2320 Dwight Drive, said fuller public awareness was needed that the current financial crisis could lead to loss of local control of the district.

"WE'VE GOT TO settle this and get the bond issue passed," he stressed.

Pres Partney said Granite City teachers have gone on strike after every contract expiration in recent years.

He said there were raises for teachers of three percent in the 1974 fiscal year, six percent in 1975, four percent in 1976, five percent in 1977, three percent in 1979, 13 percent in 1980, 10 percent in 1982 and nine percent in 1983 (August 1982 to June 1983 school year). He added that one raise, about 1969, amounted to 26 percent.

PARTNEY SAID said he felt the district would have to follow a "no contract, no pay" approach.

He reiterated the board's weekend pledge to raise school employees' pay for 1985-86 if there is sufficient revenue. Kelly Hogan of the board spoke next and suggested that the district resort to binding arbitration.

HIS REMARKS prompted Board Member Monroe Worthen to stand and say that the board had assembled for a seven-member discussion of what should be done, not for individual members to propose actions before the discussion had begun.

A 90-minute executive session followed, punctuated by the sound of thunder from a violent wind and rain storm.

Open house, other activities mark special week at Anderson

National Emergency Medicine Week, which begins Sunday, Sept. 16, will be observed at Anderson Hospital with open houses, a free CPR class, free blood pressure checks and other activities.

On Sunday, the hospital's emergency department will host an open house for community residents. Scheduled from 2 until 4 p.m., the open house will feature a demonstration of emergency services at the scene of a staged car accident. A life support vehicle will be on display, and emergency medical technicians and paramedic students in training at Anderson will be on hand to answer questions. In addition, area residents will be able to "pre-register" for emergency care at Anderson and receive wallet cards which carry important personal information. Parents will be able to complete release forms for their children to allow for immediate emergency care in the event they cannot be reached to give the necessary permission.

On Monday evening, Anderson will offer a free CPR (cardiopulmonary resuscitation) class for community residents. The 6 to 10 p.m. class will be limited to 25 participants and telephone registration is required. People interested in learning CPR may call Jean Pruett at 1-228-5711, extension 447.

On Tuesday and Thursday evenings, free blood pressure checks, pre-registration wallet cards and minor release forms will be available in the emergency department.

Emergency Medicine Week will conclude at Anderson with a Saturday open house Sept. 22 in the emergency department for hospital employees and physicians.

Pact puts smiles on local faces

As youngsters headed for school today in Granite City District Nine, there were smiles on their faces. Typical American students do not always like the transition from carefree summer days to autumn classes, but without doubt "agence (of school) has made the heart grow fonder" here this year.

Eleven days were lost as the district and teachers negotiated terms of a new two-year contract. Presumably some of these days are going to be made up, because a pupil who does not get enough days of yearly study is short-changed in becoming equipped to meet the challenges of this increasingly complicated world.

The smiles were not only on children's faces. All parties to the disagreement seem genuinely pleased and relieved that a tentative settlement has been reached. There will be no late start-up a year from now, but the board has agreed to let the enterprise be terminated if there is no harmony on second-year reopening clauses by Dec. 31, 1985.

Contracts always seem to expire at an awkward time of year; construction disputes, for example, traditionally occur during prime construction weather, not when there is a foot of snow on the ground.

A late-December deadline seems better for public schools than late August, since a lot of financial information—including actions and appropriations at fall Illinois legislative "override" sessions—is unavailable earlier. Maybe some way can be found to avoid summertime District Nine confrontations on a regular basis, not just in 1985.

Lack of funds undoubtedly was a complicating factor this year but it seems a shame that Granite City again received a "black eye" in metropolitan area news coverage, that teachers and other employees experienced several weeks of uncertainty, that students missed some of their semester-opening games, events and activities, that seniors began their final year with a lot of stress, that parents and taxpayers encountered added worry, that school officials found themselves facing around-the-clock tasks and pressure.

A public forum at 7 tonight at the Granite City Township Building may lead to airing of any remaining citizen concerns and also serve to spotlight the need for continuing efforts to bolster the school district's financial base. Local 743 has invited school authorities to participate and promises no rehearsing of the dispute.

Officials say it is unclear whether the school system will be able to remain solvent this year and next year, if they run out of cash as well as loan sources, they may have to close the term early or explore some form of bankruptcy.

Dark clouds continue to be visible on the horizon, but there also are smiles aplenty today.

Public outspoken on strike

Several Forum letters were received this week in conjunction with the strike of Granite City teachers.

All brought up interesting ideas. Some blamed the teachers, some blamed the school board, one called for binding arbitration to end the strike.

However, in light of the settlement of the strike and the return of students to the classrooms today, the letters are not being run. To run letters attempting to fix the blame for the strike on the teachers or the school board could only increase tensions which, fortunately, have calmed since the settlement. We are anxious to see the schools run as smoothly as possible now that classes have resumed.

The strike once again put us in the position of having to reject several good letters to the Forum on the issue because they were not signed and we did not know who the authors were. One author wrote, "I have not signed this letter solely to protect my children from retaliation..."

It is essential that the Press-Record know the authors of all letters used in the Forum and be able to reach them if there are questions. The names can be kept out of the newspaper if there are compelling reasons, but letters submitted anonymously to the paper cannot be considered for publication.

We again appeal to our readers, do not send us anonymous letters in the hopes they will be printed. They won't be.

Nameok ups borrowing to $80,000

By RACHEL NEWSOME

for the Press-Record

"I hate to borrow too, but unless we do this, we'll have to shut down the highway department of the township," said Lee Adams, Nameok Township trustee. Adams was referring to two anticipated warrant resolutions approved at Monday night's board meeting. The township, six months into its fiscal year, has borrowed $80,000.

Trustee Helen Hawkins explained she was casting "no" votes in rebellion to the board ignoring an approved resolution to change the township's fiscal year. With the change, Mrs. Hawkins believes, a revised fiscal year would reduce the waiting time for tax returns and alleviate the necessity of borrowing so much money.

Supervisor Harry Briggs argued that this would be unnecessarily be the case and again referring to the matter at hand, stating, "We've got to have it. If you want to shut down the township, then we'll shut it down."

Many questions were raised and answered by an angered Adams. Residents of Meridian Avenue, a petition, signed by 33 residents and submitted to the board, referred to site preparation for a motor home near an area drainage ditch.

"I've heard many complaints, these residents are having to work too hard to get something done," commented Mrs. Hawkins.

Charles Reed, father of the motor home owner, is accused of dumping roofing shingles, cement, tires and trash into the ditch which, in turn, is causing drainage problems to area residents.

"That's my daughter's trailer and it will create no effect or problems. If other people can put trailers there, so can my daughter. I will take care of the trash, I was going to fill it in, but now I'm not. I didn't realize it would create such a problem. I will clean it up," Reed pledged.

In other business, Mrs. Hawkins cited Briggs for sending a letter to Governor James Thompson requesting the veto of a tax levy bill and stating the board agreed when, in fact, the board was unaware the letter was being sent.

Denying that he had stated the board agreed, Briggs explained he felt it would be detrimental if the bill was passed and that he sent the letter on behalf of the entire township.

The bill concerned the reducing of a levy on the tax interest received in each township, but the amount of reduction is not stated within the bill.

In an effort to eliminate repeated billings from Madison County to cover the cost of the Sheriff's Department responding to alarms at the township buildings and property to the village of Pontoon Beach. By annexation, the township buildings and property would gain the protection of the village police department, he said.

The proposal was tabled pending an investigation of all aspects of the annexation by Irvy C. Slate Jr., township attorney.

PREMIUM services lists Home Box Office at $10.75 a month; Home Box Office in combination with other premium services $8.30; Showtime, $10; Showtime in combination with other premium services $8.50; The Movie Channel, $10; The Movie Channel in combination with other premium services $8.25; The Disney Channel $10 and Sports Time $11.95, all to include a $10 installation fee.

Senior Citizens will pay $4 for the basic service with no installation fee. The company also has available a parental guidance lock for an additional charge of $15—a one-time charge.

FINAL adoption of the entire proposal is expected at the next regular council meeting on Sept. 25.

The city will realize additional revenue when the cable system is installed in individual homes of Madison. The percentage of monthly charges which is to go to the city currently is being negotiated.

South-Western proposes buying Madison cable equipment

By DONNA KIMBRO

of the Press-Record

Madison City aldermen were held Tuesday night with a formal offer from South-Western Cable TV, Ltd., to purchase the cable TV equipment owned by the city of Madison for $315,000.

The offer includes purchase of the transmission cables, attachments, and other accessories attached to utility poles owned by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. and Illinois Power Co.

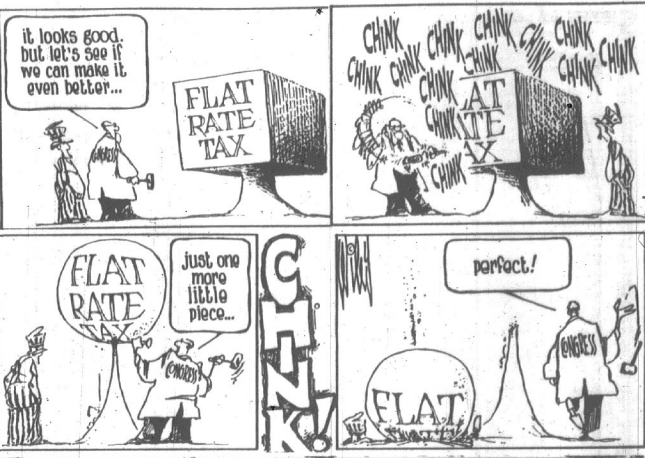

THE PURCHASE can be approved by the city council after all legal documents are studied by the city attorney, Caspar Nighobosian. In a letter signed by Chuck Jarrett, senior vice president of First Carolina Communications, Inc., parent company of South-Western Cable, he noted an enclosed a proposal for a cable television franchise and proposed ordinance granting a non-exclusive franchise to South-Western.

Mayor Mike Saayk expressed his satisfaction with the offer, but refused to estimate how much money the city has invested in the cable equipment being sold to South-Western.

ANOTHER BID proposal for the cable system was received from Dowden Communications, Inc., of Atlanta, Ga., totaling $225,000. It also included a proposal for a cable television franchise. South-Western Cable will provide a 54-channel capacity; 26 television channels in active use, with the remaining channels available for service expansion, as new services are approved by the Federal Communications Commission; five premium channels, including Sports Time, Disney, HBO, Showtime and the Movie Channel; inclusion in its Regional Network, and free installation during the first 30 days after the start of service to the city.

The rate schedule for basic service will be $8 monthly with a $15 installation charge (after the 30-day offer); each additional outlet, $3, with an installation charge of $15, and additional outlet converter will

Flat income tax

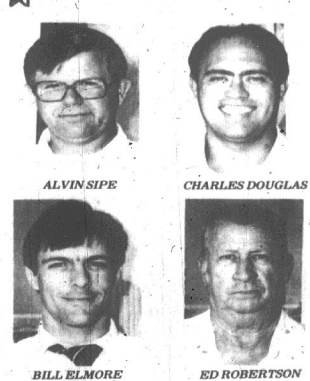

Several congressmen and U.S. senators have proposed that federal income taxes be simplified. Among their proposals is the "flat tax" idea, in which tax rates would be equalized and deductions and deductions would be limited. People visiting the Granite City Post Office Tuesday were asked if they would support such a plan. Their reactions follow:

Alvin Sipe, Alton
"I think so, because it's so complicated now. I'm not sure that (the present system) is entirely fair to everyone."

Charles Douglas, Granite City
"Yes, it seems fairer, and I think the affluent should be made to pay their fair share. There's too many loopholes and tax breaks for the affluent now. Corporations should also pay their fair share of taxes."

Bill Elmore, Granite City
"I don't think I would. I'm involved with real estate myself, and I see too many losses on real estate."

Ed Robertson, Madison
"I could go for that, because I think the biggest part of industry and big business is making too much profit as it is, and the small taxpayer is bearing the burden."

Simon gives a 'boo' to political hecklers

To the Editor,
The other day I was at a meeting Walter Mondale addressed, and a Reagan supporter with healthy lungs kept shouting insults, distracting both the candidate and the audience.

The same thing happens to Ronald Reagan from Mondale supporters.

The few people who are hecklers on either side are wrong. If they want to carry signs or pass out literature, opposing the candidate of their choice, that is fine. But in a free country, we should have the privilege of listening to both sides, as rationally as it is possible to do so in our process.

Victim angry about conflicting reports

To the Editor,
Last spring my auto, along with several other autos, were broken into by the same young man. The South Roxana Police were extremely helpful and quickly caught the suspect. When I went to court, I was told to leave because the defendant had said he would plead guilty.

In July, I received a letter from the Probation Office telling me the defendant received three years probation and was ordered to pay restitution for the burglary of my auto. Then I got a letter from the Madison County state's attorney's office saying that the defendant pleaded guilty to residential burglary (a much more serious crime) and theft and was sentenced to four years in prison on the burglary charge and another 364 days in prison on the theft charge. I was confused and contacted the court and learned that, in fact, the defendant had pleaded guilty only on the auto burglary and was given the probation sentence.

I don't understand why Mr. Weber's office treats people this way. The only communication I received from Mr. Weber was untrue. He kept serving me with subpoenas, even though I had told the police to let him be in court whenever they wanted.

behavior hurt their candidate and the political process. We already do too little listening and too much shouting. That is true for both political parties. Those who would have us listen even less are not simply rude. They attack freedom. It may not be intentional, but their boorishness is just as destructive as if it were intentional.

We have all heard the lesson that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Sometimes quietly listening to what others say is also the price of liberty.

Red Cross moves office to depot

The Tri-City Chapter of the American Red Cross has relocated at the St. Louis Area Support Center (SLASC), formerly the Granite City Army Depot.

Norma Petty is the new director. Dorothy Smith, the secretary and Carmen Bridgik is a part-time employee who handles all after hour service to military personnel and their families. These people represent the total paid staff responsible for the daily operations of the chapter.

The chapter also has many volunteers who give their time to help keep the programs operating. Some of the volunteers include: Joe Williams, chairman of the disaster committee. This group consists of volunteers ready to help at any hour, in the event of a catastrophe such as a tornado, flood, explosion, or any other disaster that might affect the area.

Delores Vogeler, chairman of the blood program, who is responsible for all chapter volunteers that work in bloodmobiles in the chapter area. Each bloodmobile needs a group of eight to 10 volunteers, including nurses, to assist the paid staff from the Missouri-Illinois Regional Blood Center to fulfill the large demand for blood for the local hospitals.

Maxine Duniphan, chairman of the first aid program. This program is extremely important to train the public in aiding victims of accidental injuries. Mrs. Duniphan has a group of 30 trained instructors teaching in the area. Trained people have had occasion to assist accident victims and to apply CPR, which has saved lives.

Joanne Higgins, chairman of the adapted aquatics (handicapped swim) program. This program consists of approximately 30 volunteers who instruct and protect the handicapped while participating in this program. It is held in July every summer.

Single family burnouts are handled by the staff when assistance is needed following a disastrous home fire. Emergency aid is given to many victims each year.

The transportation program also is scheduled by the staff and carried on by seven volunteers, who are retired workers. These volunteers transport ill or disabled patients who are without transportation. Thirty to 40 patients per month are driven to the doctors' offices or hospitals.

Man, 32, wins 'only' $8 million

A $40 million Illinois State Lottery prize is a "tough act to follow." But Ronald Holaway, 33, Rockford, a machinist, was able to follow it Monday for a 20-year annuity worth $8,935,540 payable at $446,777 a year.

He will quit the Exello Corp., travel with his family, buy a new home and finance his children's education, he said happily. His daughter is 13 and his son is five years old.

The previous winner, Michael Witkowski, 28, Chicago, plans to continue working as a printer. He is making wedding plans.

Spurred by the $40 million award to Witkowski, lottery sales last week reached $14,042,044, the fourth highest weekly total.

Third highest was $20.6 million through Aug. 15, second highest was $27.9 million through Aug. 25 and the largest sales volume was $44.3 million for the week ending Sept. 8.

Total sales for the last three weeks of August were $92.8 million, greater than the lottery sales in each of the entire fiscal years of 1978 and 1979.

During those three weeks, Illinoisans through their state government's general revenue fund received more than $38.9 million in lottery profits, more than the net revenues of the lottery in any of the fiscal years of 1978 through 1980.

Lotto sales remain strong this week, and an $11 million grand prize was offered Monday afternoon, Sept. 10, for this Saturday.

The figure may grow, officials pointed out Tuesday, depending on the exact sales level. The latest price of $9.9 million grew from $5 million (promised Sept. 3).

To win it, Holaway matched all six lotto numbers. For matching five of six numbers, 629 persons won $2,232 each.

Correctly picking four of six winners from the one million card, another $5,611 will be paid $64.50 each.

In other Illinois lottery news, the state this week began a new instant game, "One Million Cash." The lump sum payment of $1 million will be reduced only by 20 percent federal withholding and 3.5 percent Illinois withholding; there will be no 20-year wait for the last of 20 yearly installments.

In addition to the $1 million cash grand prize, there are 10 tickets worth $100,000 instantly. Other instant prizes include a free ticket, $2, $5, $25, $50 and $100 winners.

Seven finalists for the grand prize will be chosen from a preliminary selection among all $25, $50 and $100 winners.

"The odds of winning something in this instant game are one in four," Lottery Supt. Michael J. Jones said. "To win $1 million cash, the odds are one in 60 million—the number of tickets that will be sold."

All previous Illinois State Lottery instant games awarded grand prize winners $1 million through 20-year annuities paying $50,000 a year, Jones noted.

He related that "the tremendous interest in lotto has not taken away from sales of our other three games."

"In the three weeks when lotto sales were highest, daily game sales ranged between $6 million and $7 million."

"Instant games maintained their normal sales rate of about $4.5 million a week and increased to $5.5 million in the final week of August."

"Sales of the Pick 4 game advanced from $916,000 to $960,000 and then $1.4 million in the week of Aug. 26-Sept. 1, 1984." The Pick 4 drawing is to be held six nights a week instead of two.

Madison crime rate decreases

Madison aldermen reviewed a police department report compiled by Chief of Police Don Bridick Tuesday night, which indicated a decrease in crime.

Monthly crime comparison reflected a 21 percent decrease for the month of August 1984 as compared to the month of August 1983. Fines collected for the same time period totaled $2,886.

BICYCLIST HURT AT BENTON 26TH

Jim Williams, 2404 Missouri Ave., was taken by squad car to St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 1:30 a.m. Tuesday after the bicycle he was riding and a car operated by Lucinda J. White, 19, of 2917 Harding Blvd., collided at Benton and 26th streets.

Miss White was traveling north on Benton when she saw two bicyclists turning onto Benton from 26th Street. One youth got out of the way, but the Williams' youth apparently turned toward the auto and was thrown onto the hood, reports said.

The man was pushed to the ground by the fender of a car being backed by a friend from a driveway in the 2200 block of Hodges Avenue and a wheel went over his leg, reports said.

State updates its tax booklet

Comptroller Roland W. Burris has just released the third edition of the booklet, "It's Your Money," which gives an explanation of how the state collects and spends tax revenue.

A total of 125,000 copies has been distributed since it was first published in 1981, going to schools, public interest groups and individuals.

"It's Your Money" uses a series of graphics and comparisons to simplify the complex workings of government finance. Those seeking more specific information are able to send an order form to the Office of Comptroller and receive special reports.

"I am pleased to make this third edition available to the people of Illinois," Burris said. "Besides letting taxpayers know how we in Springfield use their money, this booklet also is a popular tool for educating young people. I hope it will take some of the mystery out of government finance and encourage people to find out more about their Illinois government."

Income of governor, wife tops $100,000

Governor and Mrs. James R. Thompson have released copies of their joint state and federal income tax returns for the 11th consecutive year. The returns show that the Thompsons paid $18,153 in federal income taxes on a joint federal taxable income of $67,973 and paid $2,651 in state income taxes.

His first disclosure in 1975 included the years prior to that when he was the U.S. attorney for the Northern District of Illinois.

The Thompsons filed their returns on time April 16 (April 15 was a Sunday) and filed an amended return June 29.

The amended return took into consideration an $889 deduction available to the governor for returning to the state that amount in pay during the voluntary furlough plan he instituted in state government in late 1982. The $889 represents the amount he returned during the 1983 calendar year.

The amended income tax returns show that the governor and Mrs. Thompson withheld a total of $14,832 in federal taxes and $2,692 in state taxes. The couple's total income from all sources was $100,249 for calendar 1983.

The Thompsons income-averaged on their tax return this year because of the additional income generated by Mrs. Thompson's return to work as a lawyer.

Percy campaign challenges opponent's spending

The re-election campaign of Senator Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) has filed suit in U.S. District Court to force the Federal Election Commission (FEC) to act on a complaint the campaign filed earlier this year charging that California businessman Michael Goldand violated FEC laws in his attempts to defeat Percy during the March 1983 Senate primary election.

On April 26, 1984, the Percy campaign filed an official complaint with the FEC charging that the financing of a $278,729 radio, television, and direct mail campaign against Percy was a major violation of the Federal Election Commission Act (FECA) of 1971, which limits individual contributions to $1,000. Federal statute requires that the FEC take action on such a complaint within 120 days.

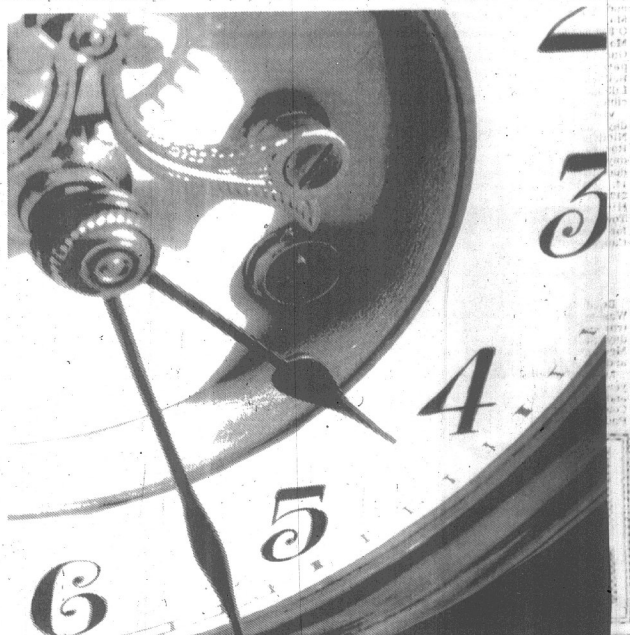

The suit, filed Aug. 29 in U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, charges that the FEC's failure to act during the statutory time limit violated federal election laws.

Madison to study city-owned sewer system

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk addressed an informal gathering of Madison residents at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, prior to the regular city council meeting. The topic of the informal talk was a proposal for a city-owned sewer system using the Granite City Sewage Treatment Plant, operated by the Metro-East Sanitary District.
 During a meeting in July, the mayor estimated regional sewer program could cost $18 to 30 a month. The residents now pay $5.45 a quarter (each three months).

AFTER MANY meetings with the EPA, the mayor relayed that the state has issued a demand that Madison decide its course of action and, if delinquent in doing so, it could cost the city $10,000 a day fine until the standards set by the state and federal government are met.

Mayor Sasyk has been working with an engineer from Sheppard Morgan and Schwaab, Inc., who is in the process of making investigative reports on installation of a lift station and necessary piping to the Granite City Sewage Treatment Plant.

During the early Madison meeting, Walter "Shang" Great-house, executive director of the Metro-East Sanitary District, spoke to the gathering and explained the problems related to a regional sewer system. Advantages of a city-owned system would include greater control in the collection of late bills, he said.

"THIS PROJECT, to construct a (regional) system is not of our doing, but, on demand from the state investigators—who will be followed by federal men—who tell us we must conform to regulations and they do not care where the money comes from, it just better be done," Great-house said.

Sasyk, who estimates the cost of the project would be about a half million dollars, presented the same explanation at the city council meeting which followed and asked for permission to engage Sheppard Morgan and Schwaab, Inc., to proceed with preparation of a cost estimate.

During the 6:30 meeting, several residents voiced their disapproval of entering into any agreement that would increase their sewer bills.

"WE HAVE three choices, as I see it," Sasyk said. "We can follow my suggestion with a city-owned system, stay with the Landdowne plant that will have to increase its rates, or sit here and do nothing until the state fines us $10,000 a day," the mayor told the council and residents attending the meeting.

Upon a vote of the aldermen, they approved the mayor's request to proceed with the local engineering firm and to present tentative cost figures at the next council meeting.

In other business, bids for city-owned vehicles were opened for a car and van. Joe Bisto offered $500 for a 1978 Ford LTD automobile which was the highest bid and Robert Smith offered the highest bid, $150, for a 1957 Ford van.

JOHN DUTKO, building inspector, reported 30 permits were issued during a two week period and that demolition has started on buildings at 1301, 1303 and 1305 Madison Ave. He also noted that renovation work has started on the former Duffin Brothers Lumber Co. building located in the 1300 block of Madison Avenue. When it is completed a furniture store will occupy the new quarters, Dutko added.

A detailed account of property in the 100 block of West Second Street was submitted by Curtis King, who recommended that the property be condemned, since the cost of rebuilding it exceeds its value. The council concurred with King's recommendation.

ASBESTOS DANGER — Governor Thompson has approved legislation that will begin the identification and removal of hazardous asbestos materials in elementary and secondary schools across the State. Senate Bill 1644 places the cleanup program in the Department of Public Health. The department will inspect, assess and order appropriate corrective action in public and private elementary and secondary schools by Jan. 1, 1988. The governor already has approved the Fiscal Year 1985 appropriation for the Department to pay for the first year costs, estimated to be about $140,000. The bill also creates the Asbestos Containment and Removal Advisory Council to ensure implementation of the law. By April 1, 1985, the council is to recommend to the General Assembly an estimate of the total cost of the corrective actions that need to be taken and the possible methods of financing them.

WELFARE HIKE — Governor James R. Thompson fulfilled his promise to raise welfare payments by signing into law House Bill 598 last week, providing an increase of $35 million in grants during Fiscal Year 1985. In addition, the measure restructures the grant system to provide more equitable payments to families in need of assistance. House Bill 598 provides an increase in the energy assistance portion of grants to recipients under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) and General Assistance (GA) programs. The average increase will be about five percent. However, instead of an across-the-board increase, the system was restructured to provide greater equity among recipients. Under the new law, the level of grant assistance will be 54 percent of the standard of need. Illinois' standard of need is currently the fourth highest in the nation.

limit. Those proposals are related to long-term debt refunding and the provision of minimum funds with which to operate the schools.

REPORTS INDICATE There will be a two-year contract, including clauses enabling such issues as pay and insurance to be reopened for the second year of the agreement.

With the 186-day 1984-85 school calendar containing six emergency days, the spring term traditionally would be shortened by those six days, in late May or early June, if wintertime snow had not prevented classes.

However, 11 days were missed in late August and early September due to the strike. There is speculation that the week-long Easter holiday may be shortened somewhat, but no change in the ending date of the spring term is foreseen.

EMERGENCY board meetings took place Monday night, when hundreds of students attended, and Tuesday night, when there was no crowd.

No bargaining had occurred since

Saturday night, but an AFT staff member from Washington, D.C., visited the administrative office Tuesday afternoon to look at financial records. Both sides said he found that the district is in a difficult financial position.

The board's negotiating team, meanwhile, publicly released a resume of the points covered in the contract talks.

RICHARD HUFF, Shirley Stoll and Mike Hade of the teachers' bargaining committee were present at the school office Tuesday evening. They asked for and received permission to present viewpoints to the board.

The board's meeting, ending at 9:45, was immediately followed by talks between the two negotiating teams and Charles Riley, a federal mediator from St. Louis.

Tentative accord was reached several hours later. Although it was past 1 a.m. before the agreement was concluded, word spread quickly around town during the early morning hours.

Cheerleader attends camp

Lis Lyons, a cheerleader from Coolidge Junior High School, was among 674 students from 75 schools who attended a National Cheerleaders Association Camp at Southeast Missouri State University (SEMO).

College cheerleaders from across the nation served as instructors, and students from Missouri, Illinois and Tennessee attended. The curriculum included cheers, tumbling, pom-pom routines and spirit-raising techniques.

The cheerleading camp has been held at SEMO State for seven summers, according to Juan Crites, camp director and director of public services.

"Each year we have a time turnout and I am pleased with the 1984 camp," Crites said. "The girls work hard, and do not have much free time, but they leave SEMO with a positive attitude, and with a lot of new ideas for the coming sports season."

Bobby Cannon of 191 Viola Jones Homes, Venice, told police earlier this week that he was beaten by another man. He agreed to sign a complaint against the man for battery.

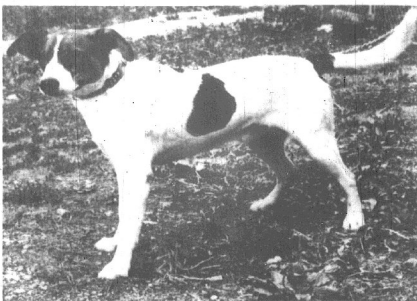

Cannon said he was standing in front of the El Capaloro Lounge, in the 800 block of Jackson St., Madison, talking to the subject when they got into an argument. The man then allegedly kicked Cannon's chest and went into the street, putting up his fists to fight.

The subject then put his fists down and said he was going to get his gun from his house so he could shoot Cannon. The subject began running down Jackson Street and Cannon followed him. As they were running, the subject allegedly was picking up bricks and bottles and throwing them at Cannon. Cannon received cuts to his finger and thigh.

Cannon said he then reached into his pocket for his pocket knife, but he could not get it open. He said when they were in the 1000 block of Calhoun Avenue, Venice, the subject picked up a trash can and threw it at him, causing Cannon to fall down. The subject then allegedly picked up a stick and started beating him in the back with it.

Cannon said the subject fled and Cannon called the police. He later went to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

Burris to speak at Mayor Echols' dinner

Roland W. Burris, Illinois state comptroller, this week confirmed an invitation to speak at an Oct. 13 appreciation dinner, honoring Venice Mayor Tyrone Echols.

Friends of Mayor Echols are completing plans for the dinner, scheduled at 6 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 13, at the new Venice Senior Citizen Community Center, Klein and Brown streets.

The Rev. John Henry Williams, who is serving as organizer, and Charles Collins, dinner chairman, said donations of $5 will be sought from those wishing to attend.

Reservations and tickets are now available and may be obtained by calling Rev. Williams, at 452-5124, or Collins, 451-2132.

All proceeds from the dinner will go toward a re-election campaign fund for Mayor Echols, whose term expires in April 1985.

Burris of Chicago, a Democrat, was re-elected as state comptroller in 1982. He is a lawyer and former director of the Illinois Department of General Services.

Previously, he worked for the Continental Bank of Chicago, rising from clerk to a vice president.

Burris ran a strong race for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate in the March primary election, but lost to Congressman Paul Simon who will oppose incumbent U.S. Senator Charles Percy in November.

Echols ran unopposed for his first four year term of office as mayor in April 1981, having previously served as the community's top elected official since April 1979.

He served for six years as Fourth Ward alderman in Venice prior to assuming the duties of mayor. He and his wife are the parents of three children.

A resident of Venice for 42 years, the Venice mayor is employed as a supervisor by the Metro-East Sanitary District. He formerly worked

Driver hospitalized after 3-vehicle crash

Sidney French, 69, of 3228 Roger Ave., was admitted last week to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment of a hairline fracture to the left knee and multiple cuts and bruises, following a three-vehicle crash in the 2800 block of Madison Avenue.

French was the driver of an auto traveling north on Madison Avenue when, upon seeing a warning sign placed in the roadway by a street painting crew, he believed he had swerved and moved into an adjacent lane, where his car and another northbound auto driven by Felicia L. Urioste, 29, of 1152 Greenwood St., Madison, collided.

The impact caused French to lose control of his car and swerve into the southbound lanes where it collided with a Granite City Street Department dump truck, operated by Leonard W. Wright, 27, of 3000 Faith Ave.

Wright saw the two-car accident developing as he drove south and had slowed the truck, pulling to the right side of the roadway. The truck was nearly stopped when hit, he told police.

French was taken by ambulance to SEMC and admitted. Wright and Gordon L. Person, 2504 Reverse's Route, a passenger in the city dump truck, also were taken to the SEMC emergency room where they were treated and released.

Reports noted the "Keep Left—Painting" warning sign was placed in the roadway by workers, who were painting about one block north of the accident scene.

An account of the accident in the Sept. 6 issue stated the Urioste vehicle struck the dump truck, rather than the French auto.

Meeting slated Sept. 27 on Enterprise Zone idea

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

The possibility of promoting an Enterprise Zone in the Quad-City area, to bring new business and industries into the area, was explained in detail by Aaron Ridenour, Economic Development coordinator from Edwardsville, at the Madison City Council meeting Tuesday night.

Madison city officials agreed to notify taxing bodies that the city is annexing 300 to 500 acres south of the Stephen Maers Industrial Park in a projected plan to become involved in the Enterprise Zone, at a previous council meeting.

Ridenour told the council members that $100 million in revenue bonds have been issued by the Illinois Industrial Development Authority earmarked for use in the zones throughout the state.

Governor James Thompson signed into law the Illinois Enterprise Zone Act on July 9, 1982, for the purpose of fostering economic development in depressed areas of the state by inducing private economic development through provisions of tax incentives and relaxation of government controls.

In the Quad-City area, the zone program is proposed as being a catalyst to foster a cooperative venture that focuses the attention of three units of local government on the need to stimulate economic development activities. The joint venture will seek to maximize its effectiveness by concentrating available resources to a five point project.

To accomplish the goals, it will be necessary to coordinate the programs and resources in the communities. The first step will be to create an Administrative Organization which will be the primary clearinghouse for development activities within the zone, Ridenour explained.

A meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, at the Granite City Township Hall, 2009 Delmar Ave., for representatives and officials from Madison, Granite City and Madison County to discuss the feasibility of the long-range project.

The council agreed to become an active participant in the program that will seek new business and industrial companies and encourage them to select sites in this area.

This concept will provide extra jobs for Quad-City residents and additional revenue for the community, according to Ridenour.

In other business, the aldermen gave the mayor approval to engage the Massie, Fudenberg, Goldberg & Co., certified public accountants to audit the city financial records. The aldermen also approved paying the bills for Aug. 28 through Sept. 11 in the amount of $71,075.

Clinic to provide flu vaccinations

Madison County Senior Citizens Service has scheduled flu shot clinics for seniors age 60 and over who reside in the Venice and Granite City areas. The clinic will be open to Venice senior citizens from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, at Venice Community Senior Citizens' Center at Brown and Klein avenues.

Granite City senior residents may visit the clinic from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 28, at Pascal Hall, St. Elizabeth Medical Center at Madison and Niedringhaus avenues.

Officials say it is necessary to make an appointment in order to receive prompt service at the clinics. Interested persons in Venice should call 877-2412, while Granite City seniors should call 876-3223 to make an appointment. The deadline for appointments is Friday, Sept. 21.

There is no charge for the flu vaccine, but donations to defray the cost of the vaccine will be accepted at the clinic site.

Persons planning to receive the flu shot should note that it is inadvisable to get the shot if the person has a history of hypersensitivity to eggs, chickens or chicken feathers. If as person is uncertain as to whether to take the vaccine, he or she should contact a physician before making an appointment.

The vaccine includes immunization for A-Philippines, A-Chile and B-USSR.

Officials state, "Influenza is a capricious virus and significant changes may occur from time to time. It is definitely known that the vaccine is not effective against all possible viruses. Protection is afforded only against closely-related strains."

It's Over! Warrior kickers begin competition tonight

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

Just when you think things are at their worst something will come along and change your whole outlook. That's just about the way athletes at Granite City High School stumbled up Wednesday's surprise end to the teachers' strike.

For them, it was the best kind of good news.

But even with that bit of good news, there's still reason for concern.

If you were a soccer coach on the East Side which team would you like to play coming off a three-week strike?

Okay, okay. Besides Granite City, Collinsville, right?

Yow betcha. With its first organized practice Wednesday in nearly three weeks and another brief practice this afternoon just prior to the game, the Warriors will host the Collinsville Kahoks. The other downstate soccer powerhouse.

But that's not all. Consider this: If you were a football coach and your team had not practiced for three weeks in pads and equipment, which team on the East Side would you like to play to them?

Belleville West? East St. Louis? Right on both counts.

After having to forfeit last week's game to Jacksonville, the football Warriors were scheduled to meet Belleville West's Mighty Maroons this Friday. But instead, they got a reprieve.

Sure, if you ask the Warrior griders they'll tell you they're ready, but not having practiced for three weeks in pads they're not "hitting tough," as Coach Ron Yates put it Wednesday.

So, if you can't meet West, who do you meet?

East St. Louis, right? Right. Next Friday, Sept. 21, the East St.

Louis Flyers will, after a seven-year absence, return to Memorial Stadium to take on the Warriors.

The last time both teams met, the Warriors were winners. The Warriors are hoping history will repeat itself next Friday.

BUT, the Flyers are the reigning state champions. They can't get much better than that. Or can they?

Get this. The Flyers are not only rated the best grid team in Illinois, but second best in the nation. Yes, nation.

"I must be living right, aren't I," Yates jokingly said Wednesday afternoon when asked about how he felt about meeting the Flyers next week.

"But, seriously it's good to be back. I think most of our kids are in decent condition. Our captains did a tremendous job continuing practice during the strike."

ALTHOUGH Yates feels his Warriors are in condition, he still feels they need to make up for lost time. He's putting the Warriors back on a two-day schedule, at least temporarily.

Practices continued Wednesday afternoon and this morning at 6 a.m. and again at 1:30 after school lets out at 1 p.m.

"We've got nine days of practice before we meet East Side. We really haven't worked on special teams — kick-off, field goals and extra points. We've got a lot to do and very little time to do it in."

TO MEET the appointed found on schedule with the Flyers, the Warriors will practice twice today, once Friday, twice Saturday, once Sunday (optional), and every day next week at 3:30 after school lets out.

Obviously excited to be back in practice, Yates called the Warriors' two forfeitures "unfortunate," but looks to the seven games that remain.

"Sure, they're losses in the record books, but in all fairness to the kids, I don't know if you can call them true losses. At least a football coach might look at them differently," Yates said.

"If a team beats you on the football field that's fine, but that didn't happen. We've got seven games left. For all intents, we feel like our schedule will begin next Friday."

We're the underdogs for the next seven games. All we can do is let the chips fall where they may," Yates said. "We'll keep competition tough; be proud and see what happens."

FOR THE soccer Warriors and Coach Baker they couldn't be happier about today's matchup with Collinsville.

With victories over Triad, Cahokia and Belleville East, the Kahoks enter today's contest with a 3-0 record.

"The biggest thing is that the kids are elated that we're going to play," Baker said Wednesday. "In all fairness it would be easy to say that we don't have enough time, but we feel that the kids are such a high pitch that they want to play."

"We haven't had as much time as we normally do to prepare, but we're not going to make any excuses. We're going to go in like we're going to win."

Wednesday Baker announced his starting lineup. Starting in the backfield will be Dennis Gaudreault, Brent Cook, Greg Goble and David DeKousse.

Starting in the midfield will be Frank Soellner, Mike Houston, Joe Gray and Scott Blason. In front of those four, in the forward line, the Warriors will play Scott Grote and Brett Scrum. Jeb Blassingame will start in goal.

Others who Baker said will see action will be Dave Baggett, Mike Dennis, Chris Kahn and Matt MacLaughlin.

Polish Hall: Forerunner in slow-pitch softball

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

In a little over 30 years' time, slow pitch softball has taken over the No. 1 spot as American's top team sport.

And, in the forefront of that revolution of United States athletic games, we'd always beat them and he'd just about die."

Slow-pitch softball got its start in California after the end of World War II and took hold here in the Quad-Cities in the early 50's in the Sunday Morning Tavern Leagues.

Explained Modrusic, "In those early

"Fast-pitch softball died out because the pitching became so much better than the hitting that the sports began to put not only the players to sleep, but the fans as well."

performance as far as individual player participation is concerned, is our own Quad-City athletes, both men and women, old and young.

All across the land, slow-pitch softball has captured the average person who still wants to take part in a sport. And, what's even more important, everyone appears to be having a lot of fun playing the game.

Leading the parade locally were the members of the Madison Polish Hall athletic group. From the start, the Polish Hall team, or teams, as it turned out, fielded some of the best teams put together in the St. Louis metropolitan area.

For example, starting in 1963, the Polish Hall team, playing in Harold Brown's Wilson Park newly organized slow-pitch softball league, won the first Illinois State tournament and won a trip to the national meet to be held that season at Jones Beach, N.Y., over the Labor Day weekend.

What had happened to once very popular fast-pitch softball game?

A member of that first Polish Hall team and still playing the game in the 35-and-over competition, John Modrusic, gives this answer, "Fast pitch softball died out because the pitching became so much better than the hitting that the sports began to put not only the players to sleep, but the fans as well. Why, I remember one time along there in the early '60s when I played two full fast-pitch softball games in the outfield and never made a play."

Modrusic gives Harold Brown full credit for the rapid spread of slow pitch locally and in the state.

He points out, however, that fast pitch was and is "I believe, Harold Brown's first love. In the several times that he arranged for his fast pitch teams, all star-studded, to play the Polish Hall team in slow pitch days, the tavern owners had to pitch. It was all a lot of fun. The home tavern supplied the food for both teams, while the visiting tavern had to come up with a half barrel of beer and they'd all chip in and buy another."

In 1962, interest had grown until formal teams were organized and invited to play in the Granite City Park District League under the direction of Brown, who it should be pointed out, was a leading figure in Illinois state softball and also active nationally in the sport.

With Stan Serwatka pitching, Polish Hall won the first park tournament in 1962 as they defeated the Mexican Honorary Commission team, 8-7. The Polish Hall aggregation attracted some of the area's most outstanding players, either fast or slow-pitch around.

Manager of the first Polish Hall team was Bernie Dennison. The roster of that first year's Polish Hall team reads: Who's Who in St. Louis area slow pitch softball.

Starting with the first (of six) Illinois state champions, the lineup, included catcher, Bill Tutka, first base Al Paskus and Jerry Dusek, second base Joe Fedora and Norma Owca, third base Teddy Sabo and Frank Spahr and shortstop Forrest (Dude) Friend (brother of the major league player, Owen Friend) and outfielders, John Kipp, Bernie Dennison, Bob Barnhart, John Konkovich, Modrusic (who also played shortstop), Bob Pare, Everett Cottrell, Otto Sanders, Dan Troits and Andy Miosky.

Pitching for the Polish Hall teams early on and then when starting playing in the 35 and over leagues was one of the best athletes ever to come out of Madison, Stan Serwatka, who taught locally for years after earning his teaching degree at Northeast Missouri State where he was a roommate of Harry Gallatin.

From 1963 through 1975, the Polish Hall softball crew played an average 100 games a season. Says Modrusic, "We played in three leagues over much of that 10-year period. Everyone wanted to play with us. Why, we even played in three leagues at the same time. Caseyville, Madison and Granite City Park District. In fact, we had enough players that we could — and did all the time — field and play two games each night or day."

As a consequence, he said, they were constantly adding players to their rosters.

I hope I don't leave too many guys out," he said as he began naming the fellows who have played for Polish Hall down through the years. "We picked up Sam Georgeff, Frank Scarsdale, Dick Portell (to pitch), Joe Viviana, Modrusic's brothers, Frank and Ed, Ray Jones, Bill Diak, John Meanki, Tom Wyrostek, Rich Williams, Ron Grzywacz, John (Champ) Summers, John Harrison, Don O'Sha, Jim Goodrich, Rich Menez, Dan Hous and Dan Clorfelter."

In 1977, the group decided to play in the 35 and over leagues and became the Smoke Joe's.

Modrusic said he thought Polish Hall's success was because "it was a family affair with us all. We were a close knit group. We had our picnics and our wives went to all of our out of town tournaments."

Most of all of the players down through the years considered by Polish Hall. Fellows from that group still playing are Dan Troits, Roger Fountain, Mike Sikora, John Konkovich, Everett Cottrell, Ed and John Modrusic, Stan Serwatka and John Chamberlain.

Team managers, starting back there in the early '60's were Dennison, Andy Miosky, John Konkovich and Stan Serwatka.

Who were Polish Hall's best five hitters?

No. 1 and by far the best, according to Modrusic, was Dude Friend. "Dude regularly hit 600 or better, and he was a brilliant shortstop," John (Champ) Summers was the team's best power hitter. Right up there leading year in and out in batting average were Jim Reiter and Konkovich.

Four comparable younger players whom Modrusic thought deserved mention were Jim Greenwood, Dan Graville, Rich Essington and Keith McFarland. An oddity in that lineup of Polish Hall stars was the names of Summers, Essington and McFarland. All three were outstanding baseball players and carved out starring careers at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Announcement brings... A sleepless night for some...

Mike Houston, captain and stopper back for the Granite City High school Warriors, first heard the word Wednesday morning at 2:30 a.m. to be precise.

The word was that he would be going back to school Thursday. The teachers' strike was over. He was excited. So excited he couldn't go back to sleep.

Neither could teammate Scott Blason, a junior who plays on the wing Blason was one of the Warriors Houston called early Wednesday. He was up all morning after receiving the call at 6 a.m., he remembers switching on the television.

BUES Bunny? "MTV," he said. Houston and Blason weren't alone. A lot of Warrior players got phone calls early Wednesday morning.

"No, one could sleep," said Houston.

If there were some sleepy eyes, they came wide awake when they heard the further word. You might say it brought even bigger smiles, too.

The Warriors, despite two weeks of non-supervised workouts, will be playing Collinsville today at 7:30 p.m., just as scheduled.

YOU KNOW, Collinsville. They're the other team in the area who plays soccer so well. One might think the Warriors would be hesitant in taking

They are called the East St. Louis Flyers in some circles they are considered the second best high school football team in the country.

That's COUNTRY, not county. They also won the Illinois Class 6A State Championship last season. They're a formidable foe, as Granite City High School Athletic Director Greg Patton, put it,

"They're pretty good." They also haven't been beaten this season. They've played three times. No one has come close yet.

THEY'RE another thing. They play the Granite City High Warriors a week from this Friday in Memorial Stadium.

It will be the Warriors' first game of the season. You heard about the strike.

Not only that, the contest marks the Warriors' re-entrance into the rugged Southwestern Conference.

All things considered, it sounds like the ultimate mismatch. David versus Goliath, that kind of stuff.

But that's only media hype. The Warriors are singing a different tune. It's not in praise of the Flyers, and certainly not in awe. In fact, the Warriors are tired about hearing how good East St. Louis is.

"No. 2 in the nation? I'd like to find out first hand," grouched 5-10, 200-pound Tim Moran, an offensive guard and linebacker.

"They are beatable. They can be beaten," said 6-2, 285-pound tackle Chris Luffman.

Against Missouri Baptist GC women win

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — Mike Kelley, visibly pleased and excited following his Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville women's varsity soc-

The second half, for a little over 21 minutes, was tightly contested, but with SIUE gradually mounting a clear advantage.

"The Granite City players give me, us, that is, a solid contingent of players who have come to us well-coached and ready to play. If I stay here, I hope that a lot more players from there decide to enroll here."

Mike Kelley
SIUE's women's soccer coach

cer team, 8-2, victory Tuesday afternoon at Cougar Field over the Spartans of Missouri Baptist College, still showed signs of his early tears as the game ended.

And he was truly shaken up as the SIUE kickers' early on fell behind, 2-0, on two dramatic quick goals by the Missouri Baptist women kickers. At 4:33 minutes into the game, the visitors' Dawn Adrebrecht, a freshman from Collinsville, blasted a shot which curled around the Cougar keeper, Granite City's Theresa Soellner, with an almost "seeing eye" accuracy to put Missouri Baptist ahead 1-0.

Less than four minutes later, the Spartans racked up an almost equally-looking easy goal. This one by Alice Schmumling.

The young SIUE coach, even though he was early shaken up by the St. Louis team's early success, didn't have a thing to worry about, thanks, in great part to the brilliant playing of nine Granite City girls, and Deanna Epps in particular.

At 14:00, Epps, the Granite City senior forward, made good her first shot on goal as an assist from Leigh Basarich. That cut the Cougars' deficit to 1-2. Less than nine minutes later, Epps, again on a feed pass from Basarich, tied the score up, 2-2, and from that point on, the Cougars never looked back and their coach, Kelley, began to relax on the sidelines.

At 25:54, Susan Bell, also of Granite City, put SIUE in the lead as she blasted in a direct penalty kick.

Now, with the score 3-2 in their favor, the Cougars and Kelley still couldn't really relax. One goal in soccer, even with just seconds remaining on the clock, can be a fleeting thing.

minutes into the second half was awesome and terrifying, and even more so because now the Baptist girls were playing two players short on the field. They came to the game with only 12 players in uniform. One Spartan defender, Kathy Sona, had to be carried from the field with a broke left ankle midway through the second half.

At the 21-minute mark, Epps collected her "hat trick" by scoring her third goal of the game. This time on a pass from Deanna Wallace. It was Deanna's second "hat trick" in her college career.

With Epps' third goal and the score 4-2 in favor of SIUE, the Cougar rout was on for sure.

Three minutes (60:00) after Epps' third goal, Deanna Wallace, off of a centering pass from Shelly Sarraach, made the score, 5-2. At 69:52, Sarraach, unassisted, made it 6-2; less than a minute later, Karen Whitted, again with Sarraach getting the assist, upped it to 7-2, and Granite City's Laura James, completed the Cougars' scoring again on an assist from Sarraach, by hitting the lower left corner of the Missouri Baptist goal from 36-yards out, a sizzling boomer of a shot.

In addition to the scoring heroics of the Granite City players, Epps, Bell and James, the four other local Granite City kickers who contributed greatly to the SIUE victory were: midfielder Mary Bisch, backs Patricia Atkinson, center Boyer and Sue Buegner. And, of course, Theresa Soellner in goal.

Said Kelley after game, "The Granite City players give me, us, that is, a solid contingent of players who have come to us well-coached and ready to play. If I stay here, I hope that a lot more players from there decide to enroll here."

The women Cougar kickers will be "on the road" this coming weekend in Wisconsin, two games in Madison and two in Milwaukee. SIUE's record now is 2-0, while the Spartans dropped 1-1. Last weekend, Missouri Baptist had defeated Quincy College, 4-2.

In Volleyball Stars open season with win

By PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Center Star's women's volleyball team started their season on the right track Tuesday night with an impressive win over Sanford Brown.

The Star's put together solid serving with good spiking to take the victory in three games 15-11, 15-1, and 15-5.

In the first game, Veronica Williams led the Stars with several impressive spikes. Miss Williams' best shot accounted for her team's 14th point as she blasted a spike into the opponent's court from her center hitting position.

Letitia Miller and Kelly Anderson were also singled out by Granite City coach Clabbe Briggs as having good offensive games.

In the second game, as the 15-1 score would indicate, Granite City completely dominated. The Stars utilized the good service of Alesia Jones, Dottie Smith and Williams to force several Sanford Brown errors and take a quick victory.

In the final game, Smith's serving again proved crucial for the Stars. After Jamie Essensper had served the Stars to an early 4-0 lead, Smith served up eight straight points to secure the victory.

SMITH, who is a new addition to the Star's team, is a Granite City High School graduate. Coach Briggs said she felt Smith has been a good addition to the team.

"I was really happy with the play of Dottie Smith," said Briggs. "She played very competitively and served well under pressure."

Although pleased with her team's performance, Coach Briggs felt that an earlier scrimmage with Sanford Brown may have left her team a little flat as they entered Tuesday's match.

"We had a really slow start on offense. The other team (Sanford Brown) had improved greatly since we had scrimmaged against them," said Mrs. Briggs. "I don't think our girls expected them to be that good."

"TOWARDS the end we were spiking more and looking for the holes," the Star coach added.

During practice this week, Coach Briggs said the Stars would be concentrating mainly on getting their offense working smoothly.

"We are going to be working hard this week on running our offense," Briggs said. "When we play Belleville, we have to be able to run our offense with our hitters in key positions to be effective."

The Stars' next match will be Monday night when they will travel to Belleville for a triangular match with their sister school Belleville Area College and Kaskaskia Junior College.

In Volleyball Action Relaxed Trojanettes whip Alton

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

MADISON — After a 15-9 loss in the opening game of a best-out-of-three volleyball match, the Madison Trojanettes took some advice from Coach Carol Cole.

Relax, Cole said, have a good time.

The advice worked. The Trojanettes won their 15-7 victory over Alton Wednesday to take their first match of the season.

"We were just nervous," said Cole, explaining the first-game blunders. "I've only got four girls who have ever played (team) volleyball before. Angela Riley, Gina Griggs, Robin Brown and Harelyn Wilson. The rest have just played in P.E."

"THEY GOT tense and it showed. After that first game, I told them to relax and have a good time. They did. They were really getting into it after awhile."

The Trojanettes were indeed enjoying themselves — even to the point to laughing at their own mistakes. Late in the final game, Harelyn Wilson missed on an attempt at a spike. She laughed out loud and turned to a few of her teammates, who also gave her some friendly ribbing.

"They were all looking for spikes," said Cole. "They don't get that many a game."

"I don't mind them laughing as long as they realize their mistakes. I want them to say, 'I made a mistake, but I want to go on.' I don't want them to get down. I'm not putting that pressure on them."

RELAXATION is something that Cole is enjoying this year, too. The Madison coach said many of her previous teams have had a lot of experience, putting pressure on the squad to have outstanding performances and excellent records.

Not with this year's group. Although eight of the team's 12 girls are seniors, none are returning starters from last year's team.

"This bunch is fun," said Cole. "They work hard and they act like they're having fun, too."

"In year's past, we always were expected to perform well. This year we said we'd build it together and see what happens. If we do fine, great."

ONE of Madison's most obvious benefits of their relaxation came in improved serving. While many of the serves went out of bounds in the first game, the Trojanettes were right on the mark in the following two games.

Especially impressive was senior Robin Brown, who served 21 points.

"She got in the groove and it went well from then on," said Cole. "I tell them that if they feel in the rhythm, then keep with it."

For Alton coach Debra Pitts, the match was encouraging.

"THIS IS the first time we've ever had to go three games," said Pitts, whose team lost 21 matches last year. "Even though we lost, I felt we played competitively."

The Redwings lost to East St. Louis and Triad earlier this year, while Madison lost to Assumption in their season opener.

The Trojanettes next game is scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday against Edwardsville in the Wood River Tournament.

Boosters meet this Tuesday

The teachers' strike has ended, and it's time to get things rolling again. One of the organizations to do so is the Granite City High School Booster Club.

The boosters have scheduled their first meeting of the 1984-85 school year for this Tuesday, Sept. 18.

According to a Booster Club officer, the organization will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Items to be discussed in the meeting include the planned renovation of Memorial Stadium.

Announces Fall, Winter Schedule

Park district to open Lincoln Place Community Center Monday

The Granite City Park District has slated this Monday, Sept. 17, as the opening date of one of its more popular community centers.

This Monday, the Lincoln Place Community Center, 822 Niedringhaus, will open its doors for the fall and winter seasons. The facility will be open evenings and weekends until the first week in November when volleyball leagues begin.

BEHINDING Monday, and continuing each week through Thursday, the facility will open at 4 p.m. and remain open for two hours for Granite City Park District resident youths. A similar two-hour span will begin at 6 p.m. for district resident adults. The final segment of the evening, from 8 to 10 p.m., is reserved for open play.

Each Friday, the building is reserved for rental purposes. Persons or organizations seeking to rent the center during this time should contact the Wilson Park Office at 877-3059.

ON SATURDAYS the center will operate under a similar, segmented schedule that it does on Monday through Thursday.

Beginning at 9 a.m. and lasting to 11 a.m., the center is reserved for youth activities. Adults will find the following two-hour segment, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., as their time.

The following two hours, from 1 to 3 p.m., is scheduled for open activities, a time for both youth and adults.

The center is closed on Sunday. Before persons may utilize the center they must display a Granite City Park District identification card of proof of residence. Non-district residents are not denied use of the center, but must present an admission pass before they are allowed to utilize the building.

The tickets, which like tax dollars help defray the cost of operating the center, may be purchased at the Wilson Park Office. A book of 20 may be purchased for $20.

Sleepless

them on. After all, there was no strike in Collinsville.

The Warriors, in a nutshell, are looking forward to the game.

"We were all hoping," said fullback Dennis Gaudreault, a fullback.

Hoping the match would be played.

"Under the lights, with the drummer," said junior Greg Goble, a midfielder. "Being at home will help."

THERE are other things that will help. What the Warriors may lack in sharpness, they'll more than make up for in zest. Did the Warriors defeat Collinsville in the sectional finals last year?

"You'll see one fired up team," said senior striker Scott Grote. "Everybody is up. We'll be psyched. It's good to have a game. We've been waiting for a long time."

Whatever happens tonight, a giant assist should be given Houston. As captain, he's been the one who has orchestrated the impromptu workouts the Warriors have had. It hasn't been easy.

"It's tough without a coach," said Houston.

THEN, however, the workout plan hasn't been overly complicated. Aside from a few plays, the Warriors have resorted to one basic scheme. Running. The players have another expression for it.

"Killers," said Grote. "Underline killers. That will be enough."

Running may not be the most glamorous way to practice, but the players have attacked it the way they hope to take on their opponents.

"Excitement, enthusiasm," said Houston.

Houston admits interest waned the longer the strike lasted. Then came Thursday.

"We'll be ready," said Houston, looking ahead to tonight and the start of the new season. "We'll be ready for it. We might not be at our best. But we'll be ready."

He added, "Who knows? We might be the team to beat them."

Moran, Luffman, and 6-2, 185-pound Kurt Hylla, a defensive back and wingback, are the Warriors' tri-captains. What they say means a lot. If you think they are somewhat outspoken in their views toward meeting the Flyers, they'll tell you they've had a lot of time to think about it.

BECAUSE of the strike, the Warriors missed out on 12 days of practice. Oh, sure. They gathered together and practiced their plays. But there was no contact. For a football player, no hitting is almost as bad as not breathing.

"It's a freebie, a freebie fight," said Luffman. "That's the best thing about football, hitting people. That's what football is all about."

By that definition, Luffman considers the Warriors football players — of the highest order.

"EVERYONE is just itching to hit," he said.

As seniors, Luffman, Moran and Hylla would like to help begin a new tradition at the high school. They think there is a lot of talent on this team, certainly more than the teams they have played on in the past. In Ron Yates, they also believe they have a head coach who can lead them to brighter days.

There are, indeed, many pluses. "It's our first game. It's a home game. Who knows," said Luffman. "We might even have a pep assembly that day."

"It's going to be great, playing them," said Moran.

Indeed, "It will be the ultimate psyche," he said.

IT SOUNDS almost as if the Warriors can't wait to take on the Flyers. In truth, they can't. It doesn't matter who the opponent is. They'd even take on the Big Red.

Remember, they consider themselves football players.

Looking back on the strike, Hylla said there were some dark days. The days got dimmer the longer the strike lasted.

"I think Coach (Yates) ran out of clichés," he said.

"I'd like to thank all the players for hanging in there," said Luffman. "It was a team effort."

THERE IS one drawback to missing all those workouts. Players will be practicing twice a day. That means 6 a.m. workouts.

"If the guys want to play, they'll be out there," said Luffman.

"And we'll be there next Friday, too," said Moran.

Especially Friday.

"Just be looking for big things," said Moran.

"And also for the rest of the season," said Luffman. "We've had a lot of time to think about it."

BUDWEISER BUCK. He might not have had a lot to do with soccer, but he was one of the main attractions recently at the Quad-Cities Soccer Association's kick-off celebrations. Buck, the 15-year-old Budweiser Bear Clydesdale, displayed his easy temperament despite the nearly 1,000 people who almost endlessly came to see the famous horse.

THE FASTEST GROWING CAR DEALER

Dixon chairs Mondale effort in Ill.

Senator Alan Dixon (D-Illinois) was named chair of the Illinois America for Mondale-Ferraro fund-raising drive — part of a nationwide grassroots fund-raising effort expected to generate $5 million for the Democratic Party's 1984 Victory Fund.

The announcement was made Monday by Illinois Democratic Party State Chair Calvin Sutker.

Walter F. Mondale said today of the appointment, "My campaign and the entire Democratic ticket are fortunate to have Alan Dixon heading up the America for Mondale-Ferraro program in Illinois, a key battleground state. His experience and commitment to Democratic victory Nov. 6, will benefit Democratic candidates nationwide."

The America for Mondale-Ferraro program is an effort by the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic state parties geared to organize 20,000 fund-raising parties in homes across the country on the evening of Oct. 7. The houseparties will coincide with a paid political broadcast featuring Mondale and Geraldine A. Ferraro that will appear on the ABC television network nationwide from 6 to 6:30 p.m. Central Standard Time.

Sutker said that the "America for Mondale-Ferraro effort will not only raise money, but will help produce people at the grassroots level who will be a part of our massive voter turnout operation." He also said that the Illinois effort has already organized 500 parties statewide and plans to at least double that number. Each party will try to generate $500 in small contributions.

VACANT HOUSE FIRE

Venice firefighters extinguished a blaze in a vacant house at 1319 Robin St., Venice, last week. No damage estimate was available.

Indexing stand may aid Percy campaign

Tax indexing—what is it, and why does it deserve attention? U.S. Senator Charles H. Percy thinks it merits a lot of attention. And observers say it is a factor that may partially explain his lead in pre-election polls.

Percy is for tax indexing, which goes into effect Jan. 1, 1985. He says his Nov. 6 ballot opponent is against it.

AS THE INCUMBENT views indexing, it is unfair to allow economic inflation to gradually push taxpayers into higher and higher tax brackets, draining a steadily bigger percentage from each individual's wallet or purse.

His foe, Congressman Paul Simon, says most people's savings from indexing will be negligible and that this approach is short-sighted in view of the huge federal deficit.

Percy thinks voters are fed up with inflation-related "bracket creep" and are solidly behind his position on the issue. As a result, he is emphasizing it in nearly every campaign appearance.

THANKS TO THE NEW law, designed to squeeze inflation out of the tax system, wage earners will find their take-home pay bigger next year.

Indexing will adjust the federal income tax to remove the impact of inflation.

Without indexing, anyone getting a raise this year that matched the inflation rate would face a 1985 tax hike several percentage points larger than inflation. But with his or her tax form "indexed," there will be no "creep" or "accidental" or unintended tax increase.

WITH INFLATION TAMED to a great degree in recent months and years, the saving for many persons will not be enormous. A four-member family with $25,000 annual income and typical itemized deductions will keep an extra dollar a week.

At $50,000, the same family would net an extra $4 per week.

A two-earner couple with two children and $30,000 yearly income would save $1.50 weekly. A single person paid $100,000 would take home an extra $7.50 each week.

CONGRESS ADDED the indexing concept to Pres. Ronald Reagan's across-the-board tax cut series enacted in 1981. However, some legislators since then have said they want to derail the index and instead let taxes continue to rise more sharply than inflation.

The 1984 Republican platform promises, "We will fight any attempt to repeal, modify or defer" indexing. It adds, "Low-income and moderate-income taxpayers would bear the brunt of the hidden tax increases if it were repealed."

Democrats say any immediate benefit from indexing will be consumed by a new round of inflation and rising interest unless the deficit is cut.

WALTER F. MONDALE, the 1977-80 U.S. vice president and 1984 Democratic presidential nominee, wants to delay the start of indexing for those with annual income above $30,000.

Tax experts make two points: Few would be hurt if next year's indexing were delayed. But over a period of several years, the tax effects of even four percent inflation would be dramatic.

If prices rose four percent a year from 1985 through 1989, and a $25,000 one-earner family received a four percent raise each year, that family's burden would grow by 39 percent, or $855, without indexing, its buying power would erode by that $855 even though its income had merely kept pace with inflation.

THE U.S. SENATE Finance Committee says that, without indexing, a person who gets a 10 percent raise has to pay 16 percent more in taxes. Indexing adjusts the $1,900 a person exemption, the $2,300 standard deduction for single persons, the $3,400 deduction for joint returns and the various tax brackets. The adjustment will be the rise in the consumer price index for the 12 months ending Sept. 30.

Based on current projections, the exemption will rise to $1,040 and the deductions to $2,390 and $3,540, with the top and bottom of each bracket being increased by four percent, allowing more income to be taxed at a lower level.

IN THEIR INITIAL debate Sept. 7, Percy said, "I have supported tax cuts that have worked miracles in terms of economic recovery." Simon replied, "In many sectors we are in much worse shape, but if you are in Percy's income bracket things are probably better."

Sen. Percy said Simon is a "pessimist" who opposed the Reagan tax cuts and advocated wasteful government spending that ultimately robs good jobs. Cong. Simon countered, "Should government be here for the wealthy and powerful, or for the needs of the people?"

Simon conceded that federal income taxes were reduced but said these savings were more than offset by higher payments to Social Security and by bigger local taxes necessitated by federal funding reductions.

Percy said Simon pushed legislation allowing taxpayers to check a box on the tax return banning the U.S. from using their tax payment for national security.

Simon said the bill had no real hope of being adopted and was submitted to "send a signal" that the Pentagon should reduce waste.

THE CHALLENGER added, "They got the message. Meanwhile, Sen. Percy has voted for every ridiculous weapon system that came along."

Simon opposed the new B-1 bomber as costly and ineffective. Percy responded by saying that "our B-52s are older than the pilots flying them."

The senator said he backed sale of radar surveillance airplanes to Saudi Arabia as a defensive measure that has helped maintain peace. The congressman took the opposite viewpoint, saying the U.S. should not "arm both sides" in a potential conflict between Arabs and Israelis.

THE TWO DEBATERS acknowledged that their candidacies offer voters a clear choice.

Percy alleged, "My opponent is suspicious of business and is suggesting class differences, hostilities and fears." The senator voiced optimism that the expanding economy will alleviate the deficit, adding that he will back an increase in the individual income tax exemption to $2,000.

Simon agreed to support this only if another revenue source is found to replace the lost taxes. Warning that a $2,000 exemption limit increase the federal deficit by $40 billion yearly, the congressman said he will outline this month ways to close loopholes, cut spending, halve the deficit by 1986 and balance the budget by 1988.

GC student wins honors in newspaper contest

Eleven-year-old Amy Stallings of Granite City has won an honorable mention in "The Great Newspaper Reading-Writing Contest" using an article from the Press-Record.

Art guild elects officers

The Granite City Art Guild has elected officers for the following year. They are President Lucille Sackett, Vice President James Lengel, Corresponding Secretary Cathy Seim, Recording Secretary Dorothy Buente and Treasurer Nelly Dierker.

The group meets at 7:30 p.m. the third Tuesday of each month in the Fellowship Hall of Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road. The entrance and parking lot are in back of building.

The September guest artist is watercolorist Lorraine Miller of St. Louis. She is member of the Cameo Art Group. She has studied at Washington University and received her degree from Maryville College. The public is being invited to attend the meeting.

The contest, sponsored by Harris Media Associates of Northfield, Mass., asked students to select an article from their local newspaper and, in a short essay, tell why this article gives them "new power."

Amy was a student in Marilyn Ronney's class at Frohardt School when she wrote her essay. She will receive a Famous Persons Stamp Collecting Kit and her school will receive a gift of reading skills workbooks in her name.

Amy used the Apr. 30 editorial cartoon, related editorial article and Readers React column concerning the Japanese purchase of half of National Steel Corporation as the subject of her essay.

New Hospice program helps deal with grief

"People who have recently lost a loved one through death, divorce or some other type of separation may have difficulty dealing with their grief. If you or someone you know is experiencing grief, you should know about the grief support group sponsored by Hospice of Madison County," said Nina Millett, Hospice program director.

The group is beginning a program, "Creative Living After a Loss," which will consist of six weekly sessions of 90 minutes each. The first session will begin on Thursday, Sept. 20, and the sessions will continue each Thursday until Oct. 25. The group will meet in Kaender's Court at St. Elizabeth Medical Center from 2 until 3:30 p.m.

The program is designed for persons who have experienced a significant loss, such as the death of a loved one, divorce or other such losses that lead to major life adjustments. The group will share information regarding the grief process, normal and abnormal grief and skills helpful in aiding persons to make a healthy adjustment. After completing the six weekly sessions, the participants will have the opportunity to form an ongoing group.

No specific fee will be charged, but donations to help cover expenses are accepted.

More information is available from Nina Millett at 798-3820 or Lois Lybarger, director of volunteers, at 798-3488.

Confusion over assessment cards

County Director of Administration Mary Kane said more than 94,000 residents soon will receive post cards notifying them of a change in the assessed valuation of their property.

A new state law requires the Board of Review to notify property owners of the change prior to the distribution of tax bills and to state the reason the assessed valuation changed.

Mrs. Kane said the new law is costing the county just over $11,000 and has become a burden for county workers.

She said the post cards will also cause a lot of confusion among county residents.

"My concern is residents will think their property has been reassessed for whatever reason by an assessor, when it's really only a notification that a multiplier was applied," she told reporters.

"And the information happens to be on every bill anyway, up in the corner. It was a legislative act that's caused a lot of red tape," she added.

Mrs. Kane predicted "plenty of chaos" at the Board of Review office this week from residents wanting to know what the cards mean. The post cards were mailed late last week.

The cost of the post cards also means the finance committee will have to find an extra $11,000 for the Board of Review's new budget, Mrs. Kane said.

Assault, conduct charges are filed

Jerry D. Sutt, 21, of 2022 Harris St., Madison, was taken into custody during the weekend at a dwelling in the 2100 block of Lee Avenue, Granite City, and initially held for investigation in connection with an incident occurring five hours earlier.

Sutt subsequently was charged with aggravated assault, battery and reckless conduct. He was released after posting a $204 cash bond.

The arrest related to an incident reported the previous day when Captain Glen Lockwood, U.S. Army, St. Louis, alleged to police that a man driving an auto had attempted to run over him with the vehicle.

Lockwood said the driver of a sports car first tried to run him off the road several times while both vehicles were headed north on Madison Avenue and Nameoki Road and again while traveling east on Johnson Road.

At Johnson Road and Wabash Avenue, the driver of the other car yelled and cursed him, telling him to get out of his vehicle, Lockwood alleged. After he got out of his vehicle, Lockwood alleged the other motorist drove recklessly toward him.

The sports car then crossed the grass median on Wabash Avenue in the southbound lanes, turned around and came back in the northbound lanes in a southerly direction, the Army officer said.

At this point, Lockwood ran into a service station lot, where the other driver tried to run over him, the officer alleged. The vehicle then left the area, heading east on Johnson Road.

A woman was in the car with the male driver and descriptions of the occupants and vehicle were given police. The area was searched but the second auto was not located at that time, reports noted.

DUI IS CHARGED AFTER MCKINLEY BRIDGE CRASH

Michael R. Koenig, 28, of Cottage Hills, was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol last week after his vehicle struck the superstructure of the McKinley Bridge in Venice.

Koenig's auto, which was headed east across the bridge, was virtually demolished, but the driver appeared uninjured, an officer said.

Foreign Trade Zone eligibility expands

Governor James R. Thompson signed legislation Wednesday allowing any community, or public or private corporation to apply to the U.S. Department of Commerce to establish and operate a foreign trade zone.

"The concept of a foreign trade zone is to create jobs in our state, not overseas. This bill speeds the process of gaining foreign trade zone status, thus making it easier for our state to benefit from them," Thompson said.

"Several major industrial plants are located in the Rockford area, including Caterpillar, Deere, Case and International Harvester. This legislation will give these companies and this area another tool they need to compete for economic development."

Foreign Trade Zones are enclosed areas considered outside the customs territory of the United States. Foreign and domestic merchandise may be moved into these zones for storage, exchange, manufacture or other processing. Payment of custom duty is not required on the foreign merchandise unless and until it enters Customs territory of domestic consumption.

Currently, Illinois has two foreign trade zones, one located within the Port of Chicago and the other at Tri-City Regional Port in Granite City.

"Zones can be authorized only for sites that are in or near U.S.

Customs ports of entry and not within 50 miles of a current zone. We have already been in contact with officials from the Quad-Cities (Rockford area) and Kankakee areas, and I encourage all other communities that might qualify to call us for details of this program," said Department of Commerce and Community Affairs Director Michael T. Woelfler.

BURGLARY IS CHARGED

Rick Walker, 19, of 131 Grenzer Homes, Madison, was arrested by Venice police last week and charged with burglary. No report on the incident was available from Venice police.

TELEVISION, RADIO TAKEN

Willie Turner of 142 Violet Jones Homes, Venice, told police recently that someone took a 12-inch black and white television and a digital clock radio from his home. He said the burglary must have occurred while he was sleeping.

LOOT PARKED PICKUP

A large number of hand tools were stolen from compartments of a pickup truck belonging to Patrick Urban II of Collinsville, while the truck was parked recently in the lot at Charlie's Restaurant, 3120 Nameoki Road. Two pairs of binoculars also were taken from the truck cab, the owner said.

REFRIGERATOR MISSING

A refrigerator valued at $365 was taken in a burglary at 3405 Kirkpatrick Homes. It was reported last week by Jim Taylor, maintenance superintendent. Entry was gained through a rear window.

Cannabis possession, among other charges

David A. Yurkovich, 17, of 2928 Faith Ave., was arrested last week at his home and charged with unlawful possession of cannabis, theft of lost or mislaid property and unlawful sound amplification. He was released after posting a $256 cash bond, pending a court appearance.

Police went to the Faith Avenue address after neighbors complained their sleep was being disturbed by a loud party, with people yelling and vehicles blocking the street.

Several hundred persons were in the yard at the house when officers arrived and vehicles were parked the wrong way, blocking traffic, reports alleged.

Three or four people were in the basement at the dwelling and Yurkovich was arrested when a metal pan, allegedly containing cannabis seeds and a water pipe, were seen on the bar.

A street sign, marked Faith Avenue and Nameoki Road, also was found in the basement, it was alleged.

BURGLARY WARRANT SERVED, RESISTING ARREST CHARGED

Douglas "Chubby" Davis, 18, of 13 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was served with a warrant for burglary recently by Venice police, and was subsequently charged with two counts of resisting arrest.

Davis allegedly struggled with the police officer as he was being handcuffed and attempted to escape from the police twice before he was booked. Davis was treated at St. Elizabeth Medical Center for a cut to the hand that had reopened during the struggle. He was later transferred to Madison County Jail.

DISTURBANCE ENDS IN TWO CHARGES

Called to a disturbance recently, officers were told by Paul Carroll, 1911 Grand Ave., that a man knocked him down and put his foot through a glass pane in the door and had gone to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. A large amount of blood was evident on the front porch and inside the door, it was noted.

Max W. Gorrell Jr., 28, of 1911 Grand Ave., was located at the emergency room, where he was being treated for an injury to his right leg. He was charged with battery and criminal damage to property.

The latter complaint was signed by the building owner, Vance Weiss. WOMAN ALLEGES BATTERY Freddie Baker, 33, of 122 Roosevelt Drive, Eagle Park Acres, was charged with battery last week by Venice police after he allegedly hit a woman's head with a quart bottle of beer. THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Retail theft is a major problem in the business community. It has been this writer's experience that all types of people shoplift. Statistics indicate that wealthy individuals as well as poor people commit this offense.

At times, this writer is amazed at the ridiculous items which are shoplifted, such as toothpaste, mouthwash, gum and cigarettes. It is difficult to envision why someone would face the potential serious penalties to steal such minor items. Discussions with these people sometimes reveal that they find it exciting to attempt to successfully commit this crime.

Shoplifting should not be taken lightly. Theft of property not exceeding $300.00 in value is a Class A misdemeanor. It is punishable by up to 364 days in jail and a $1,000 fine. A second offense, after a conviction of any type of theft, is a Class 4 felony.

Several decisions need to be made by a person arrested and charged with theft under $300. First they need to decide whether they want to be represented by an attorney. They certainly have the right to represent themselves in court. The problem is that most laymen do not understand the legal process and the potential ramifications of a conviction on this charge.

Beta Eta Chapter opens new year

Beta Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma opened its 1984-85 year during the weekend by meeting at the Edwardsville Ginger Creek Inn with about 50 members present.

Impressive initiation ceremonies were conducted for Mrs. Christine Head, Mrs. Deborah O'Neill and Mrs. Missy Schroeder. Assisting with the ceremonies were Mrs. Mary Sue Harper and Mrs. Nancy Rainier.

"Music Around the World" was the title of Mrs. Valerie Stevens' program which included a group singing. Table decorations were many types of music boxes acquired by members from all parts of the world. Several members spoke briefly of the memories attached to their boxes. A musical attendance prize was won by Mrs. Helen Purkale and the floral centerpiece was awarded to Mrs. Carol Gendron.

President Diane Funkhouser, of Highland, conducted a memorial service for Mrs. Ona Gillbreath, a member who died Aug. 11.

For a number of years, Beta Eta members have remembered the residents of the Troy Professional Care Home at Christmas time with a large assortment of gifts. In order to show our care and concern for these residents, the members voted to individually "adopt" two residents each and remember them frequently throughout the entire year, the president announces.

After a brunch, the members met in different committees to formulate plans for the new year.

A special guest was Mrs. Marian Connelley Peters, the daughter of member Marguerite Connelley. Mrs. Peters, the wife of the editorial cartoonist Mike Peters, announced that her husband would be introducing a new comic strip, "Mother Goose and Grimm" very shortly and that it would be featured in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Additional area members present were Vivian Dine, Martha Jean Hayes, Virginia Oram, Linda Givens, Joyce Tracy and Barbara Williams.

Mrs. Kostoff hosts garden club meet

The Garden Study Club held its meeting at the home of member Mrs. Catherine Kostoff, last week and studied garden pests.

President Margaret Hueseman called the meeting to order as members answered the roll call by stating their preferred control insect spray.

Clara Winters provided the program on garden enemies.

Members received an acknowledgement from Lincoln Memorial for their donation, it was noted.

After the meeting, a dessert luncheon was served to the nine members present.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Winters.

Mrs. Mary D. Stuart heads state DeMolay Mothers Clubs

Mrs. Mary D. Stuart was appointed administrator of Mother's Clubs of Illinois by Edward C. Bieser, executive officer for the jurisdiction of Illinois. She succeeds Mrs. Cathy Martin of Bloomington.

As administrator, Mrs. Stuart will direct the overall operation of state program of Mother's Clubs throughout Illinois and will be responsible for their growth and development.

Illinois is one of the few jurisdictions in international DeMolay having an organized State Council of DeMolay Mother's program. Mrs. Virginia Wagner of Elk Grove Village is the current president of Illinois State Council of DeMolay Mothers.

Mrs. Stuart, an active member of the local James Stuart Chapter DeMolay Mother's Club, served Illinois DeMolay as the President of Illinois State Council of DeMolay Mothers for two years from August 1982 to August 1984, a first for Illinois DeMolay.

In her official duties she visited many DeMolay Mother's Clubs and chapter special events throughout the state and became the most traveled president in Illinois DeMolay history.

She is the wife of Jimmy E. Stuart. They have one son, Jimmy K. and reside at 2440 Morrison Road.

Chairman Martha McLvey presided over the business segment and the opening prayer was offered by Laura Travis. Twenty-eight members and a guest, Mrs. Marie Johnson, recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Officer reports were given and it was announced there will be an alteration demonstration on Monday, Oct. 22, in Edwardsville from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Attendance is limited to 30, the chairman noted.

Hostesses for the day were Betty Weston, Madge Ramsey and Mrs. Travis. They served refreshments from tables decorated in a "back to school" theme. Mrs. Grace Padlock received the attendance prize.

ROCK-THROWING VANDAL

A vandal threw a large rock through a glass pane in an overhead door at D&M Truck-Trailer Repair, 2157 E. 23rd St., which also struck and broke the windshield of a 1969 Chevrolet cabover truck inside the building, it was reported late last week.

The Finicky Eater

Eating habits develop into finicky eaters. There was an English Shepherd who would not eat either dog food or kibble, but only chicken. In a case like that it's best to gradually mix in other foods with the preferred food. In a test of wills, there's a good chance you'll end up the loser.

Though commercial dog foods are scientifically designed to provide a complete and well-balanced diet, many dog owners insist on adding table scraps and other supplements. This is fine as long as the dog does not develop exotic and expensive eating habits, switching from dog food to flat mignon may not only be a strain on the family budget but on the dog's health. A diet of pure, lean beef lacks many of the vitamins, minerals, and carbohydrates which a dog requires.

Still, in spite of our best intentions, there are dogs who develop into finicky eaters. Brought to you as a public service by:

GC unemployment is at 13 percent

Unemployment in Granite City increased from 12.5 percent in June to 13 percent in July, according to preliminary figures released last week from the Illinois Bureau of Employment Security.

The preliminary July figures show that 2,600 Granite City residents were on the unemployment rolls, an increase from 2,550 in June's final figures. The city's labor force declined slightly during that period, from 20,375 in June to 20,125 in July, the report shows.

The employment situation in Madison County, however, improved somewhat, dropping from 10 percent in June to 9.7 percent in July. Statewide, the unemployment rate improved to 8.6 percent in July from 8.8 percent the previous month.

According to Velda Gerstennecker of the research and analysis division, "Accelerated construction activity, gains in auxiliary industries, coupled with summer schedules in schools and the withdrawal from the labor force of unsuccessful student jobseekers, all netted a decline in both employment and unemployment sectors (in the seven county region).

Granite City, however, showed the highest July unemployment among the four major cities in this region. Belleville followed at 12.7 percent, East St. Louis showed 11.3 percent unemployment and Alton's rate fell a half percent to 11 percent in July. In June's final figures, Belleville had the highest unemployment rate at 13.2 percent.

In the seven-county region, unemployment fell from 9.8 percent in June to 9.5 percent in July's preliminary figures. In the region, there were 28,300 persons unemployed in July out of a workforce of 297,650.

In the region, Calhoun County continued to have the highest unemployment rate in July at 16 percent, despite a decline of nine-tenths of a percent from the previous month. Jersey County followed at 11.5 percent, followed by Clinton County at 9.8 percent and Madison County at 9 percent.

Trailing were St. Clair and Bond counties at 7.5 percent unemployment each in July, and Monroe County at 7.5 percent. Statewide, there were 480,000 persons on the unemployment rolls, a decrease from 506,000 in June. The labor force in the state dropped from 3,736,000 in June to 3,666,000 in July, the report shows.

August's unemployment figures were not yet available.

Pontoon Beach Board passes tax rate for police protection

The Pontoon Beach Village Board Tuesday night set its 1984-85 fiscal year levy for police protection in the village. The board approved a levy (the amount to be raised by taxation next summer) of $295,730 for May 1, 1984, through April 30, 1985. The ordinance also sets a tax rate of .075 percent of the assessment of taxable property in the village.

In other action, the board directed its attorney, Robert Hennessey, to investigate the village's options in keeping property owners along Long Lake from filling in the lake bank with debris.

Village officials have indicated that there have been some complaints about property owners filling their lots into the lake by extending in the bank with debris, including dirt and gravel.

Hennessey told the board that he has contacted Illinois Department of Transportation officials to determine whether IDOT had jurisdiction over the lake. IDOT officials later informed Hennessey that the village may have jurisdiction over the lake because of its flood control ordinance.

Hennessey said he needs to review the ordinance and will inform the board later whether the village does have the authority to keep property owners from filling in the lake bank. If so, he noted, the police department may be allowed to issue complaints or citations, and the village may be allowed to prosecute violators.

The board gave its approval to having the Village Hall driveway and parking lot sealed by Limbaugh Builders, Inc., of Pontoon Beach. Limbaugh will seal the parking lot and driveway for $800. C.D. Peters Construction Co. quoted a price of more than $2,400 for the work.

A resolution condemning a building on the north corner of North Drive and Highway 111 was passed by the board. The building, which is considered in "hazardous condition," is owned by Victor Neece.

Finally, the board gave permission to the Pontoon Beach Lions Club to conduct its Candy Day Oct. 12 and 13 at the intersection of Highways 111 and 162. Lions Club members give away candy and collect donations from motorists to help raise funds to aid the visual and hearing impaired.

St. John Lutheran to mark 25th year

Twenty-five years have elapsed since St. John Lutheran congregation dedicated its new church edifice at St. Clair and Dale Avenues. The congregation will celebrate its silver anniversary at the new location with a special service of praise and thanksgiving Sunday, the Rev. Samuel Boda announces.

The congregation was organized in March of 1959 and worshipped at a frame church that members constructed at East 24th Street and Bromley Avenue for many years. They sold this church in 1958 and built the new, contemporary church structure at St. Clair and Dale Avenues, beginning services there in 1959.

Formal dedication took place on the third Sunday in September in 1959. Since that time much growth has been in evidence, Rev. Boda said.

This Sunday's service will highlight the Holy Communion celebration. The local pastor, Rev. Boda, who has been with the congregation since 1949, will deliver the anniversary message. Assisting in the chancel will be Seminarian Gary Childs, of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. At the organ will be the seminarian's wife, Mrs. Anita Childs.

At 1 p.m., members of the congregation will assemble on the church grounds for a picnic with an afternoon of fellowship to follow. Seminarians Childs and Paul Hinz will be in charge of sports activities and recreation, and Mrs. Childs will lead in group singing. Picnic committee chairmen are John T. Severing, Sr. and Mrs. Dennis Schmitz, who will be assisted by many volunteers.

Last Sunday, the congregation honored one of its church members, the honorable Judge Charles William Chapman, for being chosen by the Association of Trial Lawyers of America as this year's "Outstanding" state trial judge. He received a special plaque in Seattle, Wash., testifying to the excellence of his work as judge.

Also during the worship service, the work of Goodways International was also highlighted and undergirded with support. Wayne Long, a Gideon from Edwardsville spoke briefly at the close of the service—for the Gideons.

HONOR SOCIETY DONATES FUNDS TO TUTORING SERVICE. Ruth Stiemler (center), past secretary for the campus chapter of Phi Eta Sigma at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, presents a check for $310 to Miriam Dusenbury, director of the Office of Academic Services of the university, as Eric Surlay, faculty advisor for the chapter, watches the donation. Members of the chapter decided to give the money left in their treasury to the tutoring service. Italian archeology students visit SIUE

Eight students and five faculty members from the University of Salerno in Italy will study archeological methods during a 12-day visit to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and other parts of the state, according to Vaughnie J. Lindsay, dean of the graduate school.

Several years ago, the University of Salerno, SIUE and SIUCarbanelle set up an agreement for cooperative research and educational programs between the Italian institution of higher learning and SIUE, Dean Lindsay explained.

LAST YEAR, several SIUE faculty members, including Michael Astour, department of historical studies, Delipca Bagchi, department of earth science, geography and planning, Edward Hudlin, department of philosophical studies, Sidney Denny, William Woods and Christy Wells, department of anthropology, and six American students visited Italy as the inaugural exchange.

With an emphasis on archeology, the group confirmed an Etruscan site at San Vito near Paestum, an important archeological site, according to Hudlin. The students received academic credit for their work.

While the Italian students and their instructors are in the area, they will be introduced to American archeological methodology and laboratory techniques. They will attend lectures, visit museums and archeological sites, and receive hands-on experience at a local excavation site, Woods said.

THE GROUP will investigate a structure occupied approximately 800 A.D. and storage pit features. "We'll use the techniques we've discussed in the lectures," Woods said. The students will also process their findings in the university's archeological laboratory.

"It is the first time that I know of that an organized group of European archeologists and students have come to this area to excavate," Woods said. "We'll discuss how we can apply these techniques to the San Vito site."

Woods indicated that the San Vito program will be the first of its kind to use classical and American archeological methods at one site.

AS THE NEXT step in the exchange program, SIUE faculty and students will work on the San Vito site in 1985, along with university of Salerno scholars, a researcher from the Ancient Monuments Laboratory in London and several other researchers from the U.S.

While he is visiting the SIUE campus, Mario Mello, director of the Institute of Ancient History and Archeology at the University of Salerno, will address the SIUE academic community on the topic, "Paestum Civilization: Past and Present."

The lecture, scheduled in the Hackberry Room of the University

Openings still are available for two telecourses at Belleville Area College (BAC).

The first course, The New Literacy, is an up-to-date survey of electronic data processing, computer hardware and software systems and developments that will provide the basis for further advancement in information processing.

INSTRUCTOR DON Distler says this course is for anyone interested in computers. "This course is tailored to those student from all disciplines, not just those from data processing," he said. "This course uses laymen's terms. Students learn to use the computer, not understand every little thing going on in it."

The brand new color shows have an up-to-date look. "They are fantastic," Distler said. "They are entertaining and will appeal to large segments of people. They show examples of technical applications from all fields so people can see how they can use the technology."

"Out objectives are to teach a little terminology and overcome fear. Lots of younger students today are very comfortable with computers, but many of our older and returning students are terrified and have many misconceptions about the machines.

"IT'S NOT A magical machine. It can't do anything we can't do. It can only do things faster."

"Telecourses attract all kinds of students. Many of them are trying to decide if they want to go back to school. I personally contact each one of them on the phone at the beginning of the semester and let them know they can call and ask questions."

Distler said the telecourse is equal to the introductory data processing course offered on campus. "That was one of the things that concerned me when I first started teaching telecourses," he said. "But last semester, the final exam in the telecourse was very, very similar to the one on campus. The scores on that and the success of past telecourse students who have continued in the program convinces me that telecourses are not missing a thing."

THE PROGRAM began this week and will be shown from 7:30 to 8 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The second telecourse, Faces of Culture, is an anthropology course, which features dramatic and unique film footage from around the world. It also covers cultures from around the world, including our own.

Instructor Nasim Rao said the course can teach us about looking at our own lives in a wide context. "A lot of different cultures are presented as case studies, including the American," he said. "We will get a look at how other people look at our culture and analyze it."

EVERY SOCIETY has evolved and found for itself a unique way to live, but all cultures have basic needs, such as food and shelter.

This program also began this week and is shown from 7:30 to 8 a.m. Wednesdays and Fridays on Channel 8, or from 4 to 5 p.m. Saturdays on Channel 9.

Students may still register for telecourses by calling 1-252-2700, extension 200 or 931-0600 and using VISA or MasterCard to pay tuition and fees.

STUDENTS MAY ALSO register by visiting the telecourse office in room 1275 at the main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

Telecourses give students the opportunity to earn college credit without commuting to the campus every week. Telecourse students receive a study guide and assignments to complete in conjunction with programs shown on television. Few visits to campus are required.

If a student misses a program or wishes to review one, he or she can do so in the BAC library at the main campus, at the Granite City Public Library or at the Granite City Center.

The presentation is free and open to the public. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Martha Welch in the SIUE School of Nursing by calling 1-692-3960.

SIUE executive evaluated

Southern Illinois University's Board of Trustees has hired a consultant to assist in its five-year evaluation of Chancellor Kenneth A. Shaw and of the University's system of governance, adopted in 1979.

The consultant, Frederic Ness, was assigned by The Presidential Search and Assessment Service (PSAS) of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges. The SIUE board employed PSAS's services to provide a consultant.

NESS will work with the trustees' ad hoc committee for the Five-Year Review, headed by Trustee Ivan A. Elliott Jr. Elliott said PSAS has worked on similar evaluations at 23 other institutions in the past year.

SIUE Board laws call for five-year as well as annual evaluations of the system's three top executives.

ELLIOTT estimated the consultant would be paid between $5,000 and $5,500 plus expenses, well under a $7,500-plus-expenses limit set in guidelines approved July 12.

The consultant is to arrange interviews and hearings on both campuses, send out questionnaires if that's deemed useful, and write the five-year review report. The hearings will gather campus and public views of how the governance system has worked during the last five years.

SIUE'S GOVERNING rules were revamped in 1979 to place a chancellor at the top of the system and to coordinate areas of mutual concern to SIUCarbanelle and SIUE-Edwardsville.

Strikes, settlements affect jobless rate

Construction and teacher strikes and settlements have had an impact on unemployment statistics in this region.

With the national jobless rate remaining at 7.5 percent of the work force in August, the same as July, Illinois unemployment rose from 8.3 percent in July to 8.7 percent in August, new announcements show.

THE ILLINOIS BUREAU OF Employment Security, noting the third straight monthly jobless increase in this state, cited late-August teacher strikes and the fact that some districts have 10-month contracts which leave part of their staffs, including coaches and administrators, technically unemployed during the summer.

Illinoisans out of work rose from 458,000 to 479,000. Those with jobs decreased from 5,088,000 in July to 5,018,000 last month.

Despite the three-month rise, Illinois joblessness in August 1984 was much lower than the 11.6 percent in August 1983, when 646,000 were out of work.

SOME JOB MARKET areas showed an increase in the number employed last month compared to

POLICE FILE THEFT AND OBSTRUCTION CHARGES

Police were called to a disturbance last week, in which Thomas Brown, 2114 Lee Ave., said a man came into the dwelling, along with another resident, and allegedly removed $22 from his trousers pocket by force.

Officers went to a tavern where they questioned Kevin D. Hurst, 25, also of 2114 Lee Ave., who said the man who allegedly took the cash was not present in the bar.

Larry Catterson, 25, of 2341 August Ave., was seen standing at the bar, allegedly with $22 cupped in his hand.

Catterson was charged with theft and Hurst was booked for obstructing a police officer.

SEMC to open Adolescent Psychiatry Unit Monday

By STEPHEN WHITWORTH
St. Elizabeth Medical Center

Monday, Sept. 17 will mark the opening of the new Adolescent Psychiatry Unit at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Developed and operated in conjunction with St. Louis University Medical Center, the Adolescent Psychiatry Unit is a 12-bed inpatient facility designed for children from 12 to 17 years of age who are experiencing emotional or behavioral problems.

According to James Gallagher, director of Mental Health Services at SEMC, most hospitals that deal with troubled adolescents emphasize crisis intervention, stabilization and discharge. "We stress a longer period of treatment, with a heavy emphasis on discharge planning and getting back into the home," Gallagher said.

Each adolescent will be given a multi-disciplinary evaluation.

Gallagher said. The treatment team will consist of a psychiatrist, who will be the team leader, nurses, child care workers, school teachers, a psychologist, an activity therapist, and a social worker who will act as a family therapist.

Family therapy will be a major part of the program, Gallagher said. The patients and their families will have visits supervised by staff members. The staff will keep the family updated on their child's treatment.

The atmosphere of the unit will be more like a home setting than the typical hospital unit. Meals will be served family style; table manners and social interaction will be emphasized. Recreational facilities will be provided.

Gallagher said the adolescents would stay on the unit for an average of two or three months each. In order to keep them caught up with their studies, two qualified teachers will provide appropriate scholastic programs.

Two consulting psychiatrists, Dr. David Berland and Dr. Barbara Gelleber of St. Louis University Medical Center, have worked in conjunction with SEMC to develop this special program. They also will maintain active roles on the unit.

For more information about the Adolescent Psychiatry Unit, interested persons may contact Gallagher at 798-3004 or write to him in care of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, 6200 Madison Ave., Granite City, Ill., 62040.
